Report on the working of the Archaeological Department during the year 1926-27, received with letter No. 14627, dated 2nd March 1928, from the Registrar, Mysore University.

ORDER NO. D. 11972-83—UNI. 78-27-5, DATED 8TH MAY 1928.

Recorded.

1. The Director and his Assistants toured in all the Districts of the State except Shimoga. A detailed survey of monuments was made during the year in parts of the Taluks of Channarayapatna, Devanahalli, Tiptur, Kolar, Tumkur, Hiriya and Hosadurga and among the monuments so surveyed, the Iswara Temple at Gangavara in Devanahalli Taluk and the Channakesava and the Gangadhareswara Temples at Kaidala in Tumkur Taluk are the most important. The temples at Kaidala are reported to be in a neglected condition and in need of urgent repairs although they have got large landed endowments. The Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur, is requested to report whether it is not possible to provide for the proper maintenance of the monuments by an effective administration of the temple lands. The report does not show what action has been taken by the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, in regard to the repair of the temples at Honnavara referred to in paragraph 2 of the Government Review on the last year's report and the Director is requested to submit a report in the matter. It is reported that Aimangala, a village 12 miles to the north of Hiriya, contains an old fort in ruins, that the place is full of interest from an archaeological point of view and that excavations on the site may yield interesting relics. The Director is requested to investigate the matter more fully and submit a report.

An examination of Vimalabodhacharya's manuscript commentary on enigmatic verses contained in the Mahabharata was made during the year and the date of the Mahabharata war and the form of calendar in use during the epic period are reported to have been ascertained. New facts stated to have been gathered by an examination of printed books are—

- (1) the form of secret writing referred to in the Arthashastra,
- (2) the date of the Arthashastra,
- (3) the age of Kannada, Bhamaha, Vachaspathimisra and Mallinathasuri, and,
- (4) the initial years of the Gupta Era in A. D. 200-201 with reference to the Bhattakaputra grant of Dharasena II of Vallabhi.

The total number of records collected during the year was 172, including 20 copper plate grants and 9 sannads. A metallic processional image of Siva and a plaster model of the famous Mathura Lion Capital were added to the Archaeological Museum.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF MYSORE.

Annual Report for the year ending 30th June 1927.

TOURS AND EXPLORATIONS.

1. The Director and his assistants made an extensive tour in parts of the Districts of Mysore, Bangalore, Hassan, Kadur, Kolar, Tumkur and Chitaldrug. With a view to examine the traditional antiquity of Haraṇukōṭe called Maṇipura, the capital of Babhruvāhana, in the Sthalapurāṇa, an exploration of the locality and the temples situated there was made. Of the three temples found in the place, that of Janārdana is a big temple built according to Chāmarājanagar 93, E. C. Vol. IV., in Śāka 1089 during the reign of Pratāpa Nārasimha of the Hoysala dynasty. The temple is in a dilapidated condition and has no architectural merit of any kind. The Flag-pillar in front of the temple is about 40 feet high. The temples of Ānjanēya and Vīrabhadra are very small and of no architectural merit. With a view to give remote antiquity to the temple of Ānjanēya and magnify the God's power, the author of the Sthalapurāṇa seems to have identified the place with the mythological Maṇipura, the capital of Babhruvāhana. There is no other evidence to confirm this traditional information. Excavation of this site is not likely to yield any relics of archæological interest.

PART I.—ARCHAEOLOGY.

(i) MONUMENTAL SURVEY.

2. Detailed Monumental Survey was made during the year in parts of the taluks of Channarayapaṭṇa, Dēvanhalli, Tiptur, Kōlār, Tumkur, Hiriyur and Hosadurga and the following places were visited :—Sāgatvalli and Āpati in the Channarayapaṭṇa Taluk, Gangavāra in the Dēvanhalli Taluk, Horamane Kāval and Hatyāl in the Tiptur Taluk, Sīti in the Kōlār Taluk, Kaidāla in Tumkur Taluk, Hiriyur and Aimangala in Hiriyur Taluk and Heggere in Hosadurga Taluk.

3. Sāgatvalli.—Is a village 5 miles west of Channarayapaṭṇa. The Lakshmīnārāyaṇa temple in this village is a small shrine in early Hoysala style. It consists of a Garbhagriha, Sukhanasi, a Navaranga and a Porch. Its exterior is not very attractive while the interior is not without interest. The outer wall contains niches and small turrets and there is a plain Gopura in stucco and without a Kalāṣam above the Garbhagudi. The Pillars in the Navaranga are of good workmanship and the ceilings are all deep-cut and of different geometrical patterns. There are two niches in the Navaranga now empty. The Garbhagudi lintel has the figure of Garuḍa carved on it. The main image is about 5½ feet high standing on a pedestal about 1½ feet. It holds lotus and mace in the two back hands and conch and discus in the two front hands. The image, however, is not of a high order from an artistic point of view.

4. The shrine of the goddess is to the left of the main temple and is now in ruins. The mantapa and the mahādvāra seem to be later additions. From an inscription on the wall of the temple, Channarayapaṭṇa 181, E. C. V it is learnt that the temple was in existence as far back as 1205 A.D., when, according to the inscription, one Herguna . . . chaya made an endowment to the temple.

The temple is a Muzrai institution and has a Jodi of Rs. 880 per annum. There are no funds at the credit of the institution.

5. Anati.—Was next visited. The village is situated near the northern boundary of the Channarayapatna Taluk. The Lakshmi Nārāyaṇa Temple in the village is a simple structure with no architectural merit. It consists of a Garbhagudi, Sukhanasi, Navaranga, Mantapa and a covered Jagali on either side of the central doorway. The ceilings over the Garbhagudi and Sukhanasi and the central ceiling of the Navaranga are well carved. The sukhanasi ceiling is the best of these. It is divided into nine panels, the central panel having the image of Lakshminārāyaṇa and the other panels, flowers. The Sukhanasi doorway has got Dvārapālakas on either side, each attended by 2 Chauri-bearers. Similarly the Garbhagudi doorway also has Dvārapālakas but with only one Chauri-bearer each. The lintel on the Garbhagudi has got Garuḍa carved on it. The place between the ceiling and this lintel is beautifully carved with the figure of Nārasiṃha in the act of tearing the bowels of Hiranyakaśipu with Garuḍa and Prahlāda with folded hands seated at his feet. Turrets and Chauri-bearers are carved on either side of this group.

6. The processional image in the temple has the following inscription on its base :
Olagere Śyā Gōparasayyana maga Subbayyana sēve.

“ This is the service rendered by Subbayya, son of Gōparasayya, Village Accountant of Olagere.”

7. There are 2 inscriptions on the beams of the Sukhanasi (Channarayapatna 199-200) which are both dated A. D. 1139 and which relate to endowments granted to the temple during the reign of Viraganga Hoysala Dēva.

8. There is an elegant lamp pillar in front of the temple and an inscription on it (—Channarayapatna 201) which states that it was erected in Śaka year 1530 on the 5th of Śrāvaṇa Śukla by the Pālyagar Tirumala Nāyaka, son of Besaki Timmappa Nāyaka and the image of the Pālyagar is carved on one side of the Pillar with folded hands facing the temple.

9. Siti.—In the Kolar Taluk was already noticed in para 15 of the Report for the year 1910. As stated therein the place seems to have been in a flourishing condition in ancient times. The hill is full of ruins of old temples of all ages.

10. To the east of the Kālabhairava Temple there is a shrine 14'0 square. It seems to be a much older structure than any other in the locality. It is in utter ruins, has no image inside and no Gopura on the top. On the outer wall, most of which has fallen down, there can be still seen a few carvings which are very interesting. There is carved on the right side of the entrance, a cow in the act of milking on head of a linga, similar to the one noticed in para 33, Report for 1913, on the hill at Beṭṭadapura, in the taluk of Hunsur, Mysore District. There is also a figure of an ascetic with a loin cloth and ear-rings, holding a staff in the right hand and a water vessel (Kamaṇḍala) in the left and a jōḷige (bag to receive alms) hanging below the left arm-pit. The slab with the cow is full of inscriptions in Tamil most of which are however effaced. On the left of the doorway there is an elephant with a mahout on its back. On the side wall is a figure of a devotee and on the back wall a bull with Śiva on its back. All these figures are very graceful in outline and there is a peculiar life and movement in all of them which are rarely found in later sculptures.

11. The top of this shrine is terraced with bricks of the size 9"×6"×2".

SUKHANASI CEILING OF LAKSHMINARAYANA TEMPLE, ANATI.

NORTH-WEST VIEW OF CHANNAKESAVA TEMPLE, CHANNARAYAPATNA.

12. There are two temples on the top of the hill, one dedicated to Śrīpatiśvara, and the other to Kālabhairava. The latter faces the south and consists of a Garbhagudi, Sukhanasi, a Navaranga and a detached Mukhamantapa. Two figures of devotees are carved on either side of the entrance to the Navaranga. The central ceiling of the Navaranga is carved with Śiva and Pārvati on a bull in the middle, surrounded by the figures of nine planets (Navagraha). The pillars of the same are well cut. One of them especially is very ornate. The outer wall of this temple is in early Vijayanagar style and has neatly cut niches at intervals. The central niche on the east wall of the Navaranga is perforated, while others have figures of Kālabhairava in them. A figure of Shanmukha on a peacock is carved by the side of the perforated window on the east wall and figures of dancing Gaṇapati are carved on either side of the niche on the west wall.

13. The Śrīpatiśvara temple is to the west of the Kālabhairava temple and probably consisted of only a cave-like Garbhagudi originally. What are now seen in front of the same appear to be later accretions added from time to time. There are now two more shrines dedicated to Mahishāsuramardini and Gaṇapati on the right of the main shrine and another dedicated to Shanmukha on the left. In front of the Garbhagudi a big Pātālānkana is built with a Vasantamantapa on its side. In front of all this is the Mahadvara in early Vijayanagar style 6'—10" wide and about 13'—6" high. A Basava is carved on the lintel of the Mahadvara.

14. The shrine of the Goddess is to the left of the Śrīpatiśvara shrine and between that and the Kālabhairava temple. The image has 4 hands 2 of which are in the Abhaya and Varada poses while the other two hold lotus flowers.

15. A jātra is held annually on the lunar new year's day (in March).

16. At the foot of the hill there are two temples, one of which is called Jōgi Dēvasthāna and the second Virabhadra Dēvasthāna. Both these are heaps of ruins. There are two beautifully carved Viragals in the first temple. In front of the second temple is a lamp-pillar on which figures of two devotees are carved with an inscription to the following effect: "Yabayadaya's only refuge is Bayaredēva." The Bhairava image however is intact lying in the midst of the debris. The Kalyanamantapa used on ceremonial occasions is in a dilapidated condition and needs urgent repairs.

17. Horamane Kaval.—Is about three miles to the North-East of the Bāṇasandra Railway Station. In the heart of the Horamane Amritamahā kaval there is a temple dedicated to Kēśava. It is a fairly big temple being about 70'×24'. The temple faces the East and its plan is irregular. There is a Pātālānkana of about 24' square in front. Behind this, the temple proper is built on a plinth 4 feet high above the level of the Pātālānkana. A central opening in a covered verandah of 8' feet deep and with four massive pillars leads into the Navaranga 24'—6" square. At the farther end of this Navaranga are three cells two of which, the central one and the other to its left have Sukhanasi whereas the third has no Sukhanasi but is directly attached to the Navaranga. All these cells perhaps contained images but at present there is only a small uninteresting Kēśava figure in the Central cell. The temple is in Dravidian Style with a small Gopura in the same style over the central shrine. To the south of the temple, and in a line with the main shrines, another shrine with a Sukhanasi and a porch is attached to the temple. On either side of the doorway which leads from the porch into the Navaranga figures of cow-boys are carved in their characteristic dress and pose.

18. The figures of the cowboys are represented with their heads covered with the usual hood made of folded Kambali or woollen cloth and leaning on the staves held in their hands. Similar figures found at Hampe are reproduced by Rev. Heras in the issue dated October 1926 of the Mythic Society Journal of Bangalore and are identified by him with the famous Kempe Gauda of Mâgaḍi, Bangalore District. This kind of carving is a feature peculiar to this temple and is found in no other temple so far discovered in the whole of the State. See Plate IX.

19. The safety of the structure is much endangered by a mountain stream which has changed its course in recent years and is flooding the temple premises during the rainy season.

20. The Channakesava temple at Channarayana.—Is a small neat temple in the Hoysala style of architecture. It consists of a Garbhagriha, Sukhanasi and a Navaranga with 2 pials one in front of the other at different levels. The exterior wall is not carved with figures as in other important Hoysala structures. But its interior is very interesting. The pillars of the Navaranga are well carved and the railings contain intricate geometrical designs of diverse types. Plates II and III give the plan and the rear elevation of the temple.

21. The Isvara temple at Gangavara in the Devanahalli Taluk.—Is a very old dilapidated structure. Its interest lies in a lion pillar among others of the outer Prakara. See Plate V. This is a relic of the Pallava style usually met with in all the Pallava temples in the South of India. The pillars of the temple and also other ornaments found on the frieze of the ruined Mantapa to the left of the entrance to the temple unmistakably speak of the Pallava influence within the State.

22. The only other temple where Pallava influence can be traced is the Bhoganandīśvara temple at Nandi, Chikballapur Taluk.

23. The temple consists of the usual Garbhagriha, Sukhanasi, and Navaranga and Mukhamantapa with a small Gopura over the sanctum-sanctorum. Dwarf pillars and plain structure without ornamentation coupled with the usual characteristic features of the early Dravidian style go to show that this temple must be one of the earliest Dravidian buildings in the State, perhaps much earlier than the temple at Nandi which is assigned to 10th century A.D. There is however no precise epigraphical evidence to fix the date of the monument at Gangavāra.

24. Two small inscriptions on the doorways of the temple state that those doorways were fixed by two devotees and the inscriptions are assigned by Mr. Rice to eleventh century A. D. (77a and 77b of Devanahalli E. C. IX). The deity is called Tablēśvara by the people but Sōmēśvara in the inscriptions.

25. Haṭṭal.—On a small hill a few miles north of the Bāṇasandra Railway Station there is a temple called Kambada Narasimha temple. It consists of a Garbhagudi, Sukhanasi, a Navaranga and a verandah. The temple is simple and has no architectural merit. The main image is about 4' high from ground level and has 10 hands. Two of the hands hold the body of Hiraṇyakasipu; two more are tearing the entrails from the abdomen and while two more hands hold the intestines taken out of the body. In the remaining four hands, mace, discus, lotus and conch are held. Prahlāda is standing in front with folded hands and Lakshmi is sitting at the feet of the God.

Images of Ālvār, and Dēśika are in the Sukhanasi.

26. A Jātra is held annually on the full moon day of Chaitra. The outer Prakara is in a dilapidated condition and requires rebuilding. A small room has been recently constructed for the convenience of devotees. The temple is stated to have ample funds at its credit. If it is so, a portion of the same may be spent in setting right the surroundings of the temple.

PLAN OF CHANNAKESAVA TEMPLE, CHANNARAYAPATNA.

27. Kaidala.—The village is situated about 4 miles to the South-West of Tumkur and contains a few temples of some importance. These have been partly described in para 10 of the Report for 1918.

The Channakêśava temple in the village is a monument in the Dravidian style of architecture. The main temple consists of a Garbhagudi and an open Sukhanasi and a Navaranga with door-ways opening to the north and the south. The figure of Channigarâya faces west and is about 5 feet 6 inches high standing on a pedestal of about 2½ feet in height. The image holds conch and discus in the two back hands and lotus and mace in the two front ones. The prabha behind has got the ten incarnations of Vishnu carved on it. Two female figures called Śrîdêvi and Bhûdêvi are standing on either side of the image. Garuḍa is carved on the pedestal as usual. Gaja Lakshmi is carved on the lintel over the Sukhanasi doorway. On either side of this, Dvarapalakas of big size are standing.

The pillars of the Navaranga are octagonal in shape and the ceilings are plain. The west wall of the Navaranga has a perforated window. A few feet away from the west wall and right in front of this perforated window is a shrine dedicated to Garuḍa. The image of Garuḍa is about 3 feet high and stands with folded hands. This shrine consists of a Garbhagudi and a Verandah measuring 3 Ankanas.

To the left of the Garuḍa shrine and in a line with it there is a small Ranga Mantapa with elegantly carved sixteen-sided pillars.

The Mahadvara is built in Vijayanaganagara style and has a beautiful doorway. The pillars on the front Verandah are artistically carved with riders and yalis. At the entrance of the Mahadvara, images of Râma, Lakshmana and Sitâ are carved on the wall to the right and Râmapaṭṭâbhishêka on the wall to the left. Riders on horses, elephants and camels are also carved on the walls.

The tower over the Mahadvara is in stucco and seems to be a later addition, as it has some features of Mahommedan style of architecture.

The temple is in a neglected condition and stands in need of urgent repairs. The shutters of the south doorway of the Navaranga are all gone and it is necessary that new shutters should be provided. The Garuḍa shrine is in utter ruins. It is stated that the annual car-festival has ceased. The temple is a Muzrai institution said to have some amount at its credit. It is also stated that the temple possesses large landed property the whole of which is in the enjoyment of the Archak. It may be possible to find some funds for the repairs of this important temple by leasing out the temple lands annually to the best advantage possible.

The Gangâdharêśvara temple to the west of the above temple is a structure in early Hoysala style. It consists of a Garbhagudi, a Sukhanasi and an open Navaranga. The Navaranga has flights of steps with carved elephants on either side. The stone railing all round the Navaranga is carved with elephants and flowers. The Navaranga is now closed with mud walls. The Gopura over the Garbhagudi seems to have been built in stucco at some later time and is very ugly. The Archak of this temple does not live in the village nor does he seem to be satisfactorily discharging his duties. The temple which is otherwise good from an architectural point of view is marred by the ugly mud walls. They should either be pulled down or replaced by masonry walls.

The village has got two more temples at its north side. The Gaurîśvara temple is a very small structure consisting of Garbhagudi and a Sukhanasi. The Râmêśvara temple consists of Garbhagudi, an open Sukhanasi and a Navaranga. The Linga in the Garbhagudi is of a fairly big size being about 3-6" high. The temple faces east and the north wall has got a niche which perhaps served as a recess for the image of the goddess. Two flowers are carved on the lintel on the Garbhagudi doorway. The tower is in stone and is elegant in outline.

Both these temples are in utter ruins. It is learnt that these temples have large land endowments. Still the temples are not properly cared for.

28. Hiriyur.—The Têrunallêśvara or Tyâramallêśvara, as it is popularly called, is a pretty large structure in the Dravidian style and has been noticed in para 24 of the Report for 1918. It consists of a Garbhagudi, a Sukhanasi, and a Navaranga with a Mukha-Mantapa with entrances on all the 3 sides. The gopura over the Mahadvara though lofty is not very pleasing in proportion and details. The Mukhamantapa has been rendered a public thoroughfare by the opening up of a gate-way in the compound wall on the west-side against a road which terminates at that point on the opposite side. Paintings on the ceiling of the Mukhamantapa are quite recent and may be ascribed to the latter part of the 19th century. The colour is still bright and pleasing but the technique exhibited is not of a high order.

The temple belongs to the Vijayanagar style of buildings and would have looked much better but for the innumerable layers of whitewash. This thick crust has covered all delicate carvings of the doorways and pillars and has converted this beautiful edifice into a plain structure of an ordinary type. It is high time that this bad system of whitewashing stone structures is done away with. The temple may instead be given a thorough wash every year with water and the chunnam should be scraped wherever possible.

29. Aiyamangala.—A village twelve miles to the north of Hiriyur contains an old fort in ruins. The fort is small in extent being only about a furlong in radius all round. The fort-wall is massive and several feet thick, made of thin flakes of stone of a conglomerate variety found in the locality. It is surrounded by a deep moat most of which has however silted up. The interior of the fort is a heap of ruins full of mounds and deep pits. There is an Īśvara temple in early Vijayanagar style. The slabs of the walls have been torn away and the Linga inside it has been disturbed by treasure-hunters. Two stone up-rights standing in the centre of the fort perhaps indicate the site of an older temple. An inscription stone, Hiriyur 1 E. C. XI, which is dated 975 A. D. is lying close by. The place is full of interest from an archæological point of view and an excavation of the site may bring to light interesting relics.

30. Heggere.—The Pârśvanâtha Basti at Heggere, Hosadurga Taluk, is a first class Ancient Monument. It has been described in para 32 of the Report for 1918. It is a small neat structure of potstone built in early Hoysala style. The temple is not over-burdened with too much of delicate carvings as in other Hoysala structures and consequently the quality of restraint so essential in all specimens of best architecture is well illustrated in this Monument. On the last occasion when it was inspected, it was noticed that the Basti was in a very bad condition. But the repairs recently effected at a cost of Rs. 800 have to a great extent arrested its decay. There are three more temples outside the village. They are all in ruins and beyond repair. Of these the Gaḷagêśvara temple is the most interesting. The perforated wings and the pediment of the front doorway are among the most beautiful works of Hoysala art and deserve to be removed and preserved in a Museum.

31. The Sarasvati figure found in the Navaranga of the Kallêśvara temple when it was last inspected, is now missing. It is reported that it has been removed to Hosadurga and kept in front of the Taluk Office building there.

34. The Muzrai Commissioner has in his Order No. D. Dis.159—26-27, dated 21-1-27 sanctioned an estimate for Rs. 1,389 for the repairs of Sādāśiva temple at Nuggihalli, Channarayapatna Taluk.

35. The Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, reported that Hyder's birth place at Būdikoṭe, was completely enveloped with prickly pear and suggested that the matter may receive immediate attention of the Department. On a recommendation made by this Department, the Government have passed orders requesting the Chief Engineer to have the work carried out expeditiously at a cost of Rs. 332.

36. As stated in para 65 of the last year's report, a recommendation has been made to Government for the appointment of a watchman to watch the Aśōka Edict at Brahmagiri in the Molakālmuru Taluk. The Government have in their Proceedings of the 17th February 1927 ordered the discontinuance of the allowance of rupees six that was being hitherto paid to the Archak of Jaṭāṅga Rāmēśvara temple for this purpose and have sanctioned the payment of rupee one for this purpose, out of the savings, to the watchman appointed by the District Board to take care of the Mutt Building situated on the Hill.

37. The Amritēśvara temple at Tarikere is a First Class Monument and it has suffered much in recent years at the hands of mischievous people who often made the premises dirty and mutilated the carved figures of the temple. The appointment of a watchman for this temple was therefore urged last year. The Government have been pleased to sanction the appointment of a watchman on rupees eight per mensem with effect from 1st July 1927 for a period of two years in the first instance, the cost to be met from the funds of the Archaeological Department.

38. In accordance with letter No. D. 9194—Edn. 224-26-54, dated the 26th April from the Secretary to Government, Development Departments, the temples at Grāma, Hassan Taluk, were inspected and a report submitted to Government recommending the inclusion of Chennakesava and Yogabhoga Narasimha temples as Monuments of Second Class. Government have since approved of the recommendation (G. O. No. D. 273-6—Edn. 229-23-65, dated 8th July 1927).

PART II—MANUSCRIPTS.

(1) THE DATE OF THE MAHABHARATA WAR.

39. In his commentary on the enigmatic verses interspersed in almost all the parvas of the Mahābhārata Bhagavad Vimalabôdhachārya furnishes some reliable data to determine the date of this great event in the history of India. As he refers to Dévasvāmi, Vikramāditya, Janamējaya, Bhôja of Dhārā and other earlier commentators on the difficult verses of the Mahābhārata, there is reason to believe that Vimalabôdha's commentary is based on traditional lore and can be relied upon.

The manuscript of the commentary contained in the Oriental Library is, however, very corrupt and no correct manuscript has yet been found. Still an attempt is made here to interpret it. The portion of the commentary relating to the date of the war is quoted below in extenso and a tentative translation of the same in English is also given. A scheme of the Calendar of the time is also appended.

40. A perusal of the commentary will make it clear that during the time of the war the lunar months counted were pûrnimānta, i.e., from full moon to full moon and not amānta, i.e., from new moon to new moon, as is done now-a-days. The war begins on the thirteenth lunar day of the light half of Kārtika (November) under the generalship of Bhīshma and ends in the course of eighteen days ending with the Amāvāsyā or new moon day of the following Āgrahāyana or Mārgaśīrsha month. When a light half of a month is said to have preceded a dark half of a subsequent month, as Kārtika full moon is stated to have preceded the new moon of the following Āgrahāyana month in the present case, there is no doubt whatever that during the Mahābhārata period months were counted from full moon to full moon.

41. From the statement made by Balabhadra that he set out on his pilgrimage on the day with the constellation Pushya and returned on the 42nd day with the constellation Śravaṇa, that day being the memorable Amāvāsyā day which proved fatal to Duryodhana, it is clear that the moon was regarded as traversing forty-one constellations, i.e., nearly  $1\frac{1}{2}$  revolutions in the period of 42 days: This means, in other words, that the moon was regarded to traverse nearly a constellation or  $13^\circ$  a day. This is one degree more than the average velocity now fixed. This explains the supposed ominous union of seven constellations on the third lunar day of the dark half of Kārtika mentioned in the commentary. It is probable that while the full moon terminating the Āśvina month (September) happened in the constellation Mrigaśīra, it was believed to have taken place in the constellation, Revati,—a clear mistake of about 66 degrees.

42. It can also be clearly seen that this kind of error in the theoretical calculation was occasionally being set right by actual observation. Without actual observation of the position of the moon, it could not be stated that the moon was rather in the constellation Pushya than in Krittikā on the third lunar day of the dark half of Kārtika, a point at which the moon was expected to be according to the theoretical calculation of the day. Relying upon the accuracy of their own theoretical calculation of the velocity of the moon and other planets per day, the only explanation they could offer for any error in the actual position of the planets was "an ominous deviation" from the fixed rate of motion portending evil to mankind.

43. From this it follows that the theoretical calculation of the position of planets was inaccurate to a degree or two and that the accumulation of this error was being set right by actual observation made at intervals. Rough as was their observation by naked eye, the observed points may be presumed to have been accurate to  $\frac{1}{2}$  or  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a degree though not to a second or a minute.

44. Now, it is stated that Bhîshma fell on the 7th lunar day of the dark half of Āgrahāyana and that having laid himself on the bed of sharp-pointed arrows on the 11th lunar day of the same fortnight, he lived or retained his life till the arrival of the winter solstice on the 8th lunar day of the dark half of Māgha. It is more than probable that the day of winter solstice or Uttarāyana was the first lunar day of the first half of Māgha and that Bhîshma did not die till seven days after the arrival of this auspicious day. It was a belief with the ancient Indians as with the modern that death during the day time of any lunar day of the light half of a month during the six months from winter solstice to summer solstice will lead to heaven. But Bhîshma happened to die on the 8th day of the dark fortnight. He is however said to have consoled himself by saying that as the day was within the first quarter of the month succeeding a moonlit fortnight of the previous month, it might be regarded as being equal to the light half. Even to-day Indian astrologers are wont to regard the moon during the first five or seven days of any dark fortnight as being almost a full moon and auspicious.

If the 8th lunar day of the dark half of Māgha was the day of winter solstice, then it may be presumed that the solstitial point receded by seven days or seven degrees during the epoch of the Vêdānga Jyôtiṣha. From this it follows that the Mahābhārata war occurred about 500 years earlier than the period of the Vedānga Jyôtiṣha. If, on the other hand, the winter solstice happened on the first day of the Māgha then the epoch of the war may be presumed to be the same as that of the Vêdānga Jyôtiṣha, 11th or 12th century B.C. It is however to be noted that according to the Vêdānga Jyôtiṣha the months were reckoned from new moon to new moon, whereas the counting according to the Mahābhārata was from full moon to full moon.

45. The Vedānga Jyôtiṣha says regarding the position of solstitial colure as follows :—

Prapadyêtê Śravishṭhâdau sūryâ-chandramasāv udak |

Sarpârdhe dakṣiṇârkastu mâghaśrāvāṇayos sadâ ||

“At the commencement of the constellation Śravishṭhâ, the Sun and the Moon proceed towards the north and at the middle of the constellation, Āśleṣha, the Sun goes to the south; the former (i.e., Uttarāyana) happens in the month of Māgha and the latter in the month of Śrāvāṇa always.”

46. That the Mahābhārata war took place about 1,200 B. C., is corroborated by the statement made in the Puranas that from Parikshit to the end of the Nandas there elapsed a thousand years.

47. The Text of Vimalabôdha's commentary runs as follows :—

‘O, the best of those who are possessed of the knowledge of time, the epoch (of the Great War began) in the month of Āśvina, the full moon of which happened in the constellation of Rêvati, at the end of autumn and the beginning of the dewy season with the abundance of crops.’

the Āśvina month is called Kaumuda. This full moon-day happened on the twenty-sixth constellation, Revati. The Lord's (Krishna's) journey began on the third lunar day of the dark half of Kārtika. Then on the 8th lunar day of the same dark half of Kārtika with the 28th constellation, i.e., Bharani united unnaturally and ominously enough with the seven constellations ending with Pushya, Krishna arrived at the camp of Yudhishtira. The very day the opposing armies marched to the Kurukshetra, and Balabhadra set out on his pilgrimage. Then on the day of Amāvāsyā (new moon) which, as predicted by Krishna, occurred seven days after the arrival of the armies at the Kurukshetra, the opposing armies marched to the battle-field after making their encampments in the rear.

Then on the 13th lunar day, after the 12th lunar day of the light half of Kārtika, on which the 13th, the 14th and the 15th tithis came together, the battle ensued under the command of Bhishma. Then in the course of ten days ending with the seventh lunar day of the dark half of Āgrahāyana (Mārgaśīrsha) there was Bhishma's fall.

Then in five days ending with the 12th lunar day of the same dark half of Āgrahāyana there was Drōṇa's fall.

Then in two days ending with the 14th lunar day of the same dark half there was Karṇa's fall.

Then on the day of the new moon there occurred together Śalya's fall, Balabhadra's return from his pilgrimage, the breaking of the thighs of Duryōdhana, and other exploits in the same night.

In the Gadāyuddhaparva Balabhadra says:—'From the day of my setting out for pilgrimage to this day of my return there have elapsed 42 days. I set out on the day with the constellation Pushya and returned this day with the constellation Śravaṇa.'

From this statement of Balabhadra it is clear that Balabhadra set out on the third lunar day of the dark half of Kārtika and after completing his pilgrimage returned on the new moon day of Āgrahāyana and that within the period of eighteen days from on thirteenth day of the light half of Kārtika to the 15th Amāvāsyā day of Āgrahāyana, the war terminated.

48. The following facts deserve particular notice here:—

At the close of the Ānūsāsana Parva treating of Dāna and Dharma, Yudhishtira says:—'Having lived for 50 days in the suburb of the city, Bhishma waited for the arrival of the winter solstice.'

The fifty days referred to in the above verse, are those from the 10th lunar day of Āgrahāyana to the day of winter solstice on the day of entry of the month of Māgha. But the number of days from the 10th lunar day of the dark half of Āgrahāyana to the 8th lunar day of the dark half of Māgha will however amount to 58. Accordingly Bhishma says in the Dānadharma Parva "To me lying on the bed of sharp-pointed arrows there have elapsed 58 days and the duration appears to me like a hundred years."

'How is it then,' it may be asked, 'that while Bhishma died on the 8th lunar day of the dark half of Māgha; the anniversary rite in his memory is being performed on the 8th lunar day of the light half?' In reply to this Bhishma himself has said as follows:—

'The month has three out of four parts yet to run; and hence the part just elapsed deserves to be a light half.'

50. The archaic style, words and metre of the so-called dushkara or difficult verses of the Mahābhārata furnish an additional proof in support of such a remote antiquity claimed for this epic on astronomical grounds. In the first chapter of the Ādiparva of the Mahābhārata, a verse (No. 117) regarding the number of difficult verses is put in the mouth of Vyāsa, the author of the epic, as follows : " There are eight thousand and eight hundred verses. I know and Śuka also knows their meaning ; it is doubtful whether Sanjaya knows them or not." A few of these verses are said to have been commented upon by Dēvasvāmi, Janamējaya, Vikramārka, and Bhōja, king of Dhārā. Bhagavad Vimalabōdhāchārya is another commentator, who in his commentary called Dushkaraślokaṭippaṇi refers to Dēvasvāmi and other earlier commentators mentioned above.

51. Many of these verses show the characteristics of the old gāthās found in the Brāhmaṇas and the Sūtras. Elision of suffixes in the nominative and accusative plural, separation of Upasargas or particles from verbs, use of verbs of the middle voice (ātma-nēpada) in the active voice (parasmaipada) and vice versa, occurrence of words now obsolete and metrical irregularities are some of the characteristics found in the archaic verses.

52. A few verses selected from each of the parvas are quoted here in illustration of their gāthā style :—

OUTER VIEW OF MAHADVĀRA OF CHANNAKESAVA TEMPLE, K AidALA.

INNER VIEW OF GOPURA OF CHANNAKESAVA TEMPLE, K AidALA.

53. The following verse (I, 1, 236) is a typical example of metrical irregularities found in the Mahābhārata :—

yadāśrausham Drōṇaputrādibhistaiḥ hatānpāñchālān Draupadēyānscha suptān.
kritam bībhatsam ayaśasyam cha karma tadā nāsamse vijayāya Sanjaya.

54. It may therefore be presumed that such verses as are characterised by gāthā style and by metrical and grammatical irregularities form the original Mahābhārata and that such other verses as follow Pāṇini's Grammar and Pingalas' metrical rules are later interpolations. It may be also presumed that the story narrated in the archaic verses is the main subject of the Mahābhārata proper and that the detailed account of the main subject as well as the illustrative stories related in the Upākhyānas are later interpolations as indicated by the classical style of the composition.

55. Hence it may be concluded that the Mahābhārata proper is as old as the 10th century B.C. both on the ground of its astronomical reference to the solstitial colure in Ardhāśleṣha and Śravishṭhā and of its archaic style.

If the passage referring to the solstitial colure were to be regarded as a quotation in the Mahābhārata from an older work, even then the Mahābhārata could not be taken to be later than 400 B.C., because the archaic verses of the Mahābhārata are evidently pre-Pāṇinian.

(2) THE KAUTILIYA ARTHASAŚTRA AND THE PANCHATANTRA.

56. After a long and minute study of the various recensions of the Panchatantra, both Dr. J. Hertel and Dr. F. Edgerton have arrived at the conclusion that the Panchatantra is a work designed to teach political wisdom. In his Panchatantra Reconstructed (Volume II P. 185) Dr. Edgerton says "I think Hertel is right in believing that the author conceived the work as one that should teach political wisdom." The Kashmerian recension of the Panchatantra is said to bear the title Tantrākhyāyika and in the opinion of Dr. Hertel it dates from about 200 B. C. Now if it can be shown that the stories of the Panchatantra are based upon the political principles taught in the Kauṭīliya Arthasāśtra, it will necessarily follow that the epoch of 350-300 B.C. assigned to the Arthasāśtra is not far from the truth.

57. The titles such as separation of friends, winning of friends, war and peace, the loss of one's acquisition, and hasty action, given to the five books of the Panchatantra are political ideas explained in no earlier work than the Arthasāśtra. They are adumbrated with appropriate illustrative stories in the Panchatantra. The framing and narrating of stories to illustrate religious, philosophical, moral, and political ideas was one of the most impressive educational methods adopted by the Hindus as early as or even earlier than, the Buddhistic period. The Buddhist Jātaka tales are an instance in point. In most of the early Sūtra works of the Jainas, ethical and philosophical principles are illustrated with impressive stories. The Shashṭhi-tantra of Sāṅkhya system is said to have consisted of stories to explain the subtle principles of the Sāṅkhya philosophy.

58. There is reason to believe that the author of the Panchatantra is indebted to the Arthasāśtra for the use of the word Prakṛiti in the sense of a friend or an enemy (Mitraprakṛiti and Aripṛakṛiti) <sup>1</sup>. A friend or an enemy inside a State is called abhyantara prakṛiti and outside a State, bāhyapṛakṛiti <sup>2</sup>. In the 15th Book entitled

1. Arthasastra VI. 2.

2. Panchatantra I. Story 1, P. 66 (Edgerton's Ed.) ; and Arthasastra VIII. 2.

Tantrayukti of the Arthasāstra, Chāṇakya says that use of the word Prakṛiti in the sense of a friend or an enemy is his own device (svasanjna) which he explains as parair asamitaś-śabdab, a word not used by others. It follows therefore that the Panchatantra is decidedly later than the Arthasāstra of Kauṭilya.

59. Besides making use of the technical terms devised and political ideas taught in the Arthasāstra, the author of the Panchatantra not only mentions the name of Chāṇakya as a writer on Nripasāstra or Nitisāstra, but also makes verbatim quotations sometimes wrongly and sometimes rightly from the Arthasāstra in support of his views.

60. To begin with, among the writers on political science, Chāṇakya is mentioned in the very first verse of the Introductory Section of the Panchatantra.

Manavē Vāchaspatayē Śukrāya Parāśarāya sa-sutāya |

Chāṇakyaṃ cha viduḥ namo stu nripasāstra-karṭṛibhyaḥ ||

61. This verse is said to be found in the Tantrākhyāyika, the Southern Indian Panchatantra, the Nepalese Edition, the Hitoāpadēśa, and the Jaina Version of the same. It does not however appear in the Brihatkatha and the Pahlavi version of the Panchatantra.

62. What is said in the Arthasāstra in praise of Daṇḍanīti, law and order, is applied in the same words in the Panchatantra to the commendation of what is called lōkayātra, the course of life in the world as follows :—

Arthasāstra I. 4.

Ānvikshaki trayi-vārtānām yoga-kshema-sādhano daṇḍāḥ tasya nī-tiḥ daṇḍā-nītiḥ, alabdhalābhārthā alabdhalābhārthā labdhaparirakṣi-ṇi rakṣita-vivardhani vardhitasya tīrthapratipādinī chēti lōkayātrā.

63. Here the words beginning with alabdhalābhārthā in the Panchatantra are used in praise of lōkayātrā, while they are more appropriately used in the Arthasāstra in praise of daṇḍanīti, law and order. There can therefore be no doubt that the author of the Panchatantra has borrowed words and phrases from the Arthasāstra and used them to his purpose, not taking care to consider their contextual connection.

64. Again in the Frame story (I. 1), Dr. Hertel has included a verse which Dr. Edgerton has excluded as not belonging to the original recension of the Panchatantra. The verse appears in the Arthasāstra in commendation of activity and effort with no attention to auspicious or inauspicious time as distinguished by astrologers, while in the Panchatantra, the same verse with some other verses is used in praise of wealth and its usefulness for trade undertaken on an auspicious day with a good star.

65. Again the unsuitability of the quotation to the context in which it is found in the Panchatantra is doubtless an indication that it is from a work in which it has a suitable contextual connection. While citing the opinion of Bhāradvāja that a minister should usurp the throne of a kingdom to which there is no powerful claimant, Chânakya gives expression to a proverbial saying that a woman who advances her love of her own accord will curse the man who rejects her, and quotes in support of Bharadvāja's view a verse meaning that an opportunity offers itself only once and will scarcely recur when it is sought. As it is usual with the Hindus to compare sovereignty to a woman, better still, to the goddess of fortune, it follows that the quotation of the proverb in this context is quite appropriate. But in the Panchatantra (III 5) this proverb is quite inappropriately quoted to justify the slaying of an enemy before he proves too powerful. This is how the quotations appear in the two works :—

66. In Book I, 11, the author of the Panchatantra refers to a Śāstra and quotes a passage from it to elucidate the five elements of Counsel. A comparison of the passage quoted in the story with that found in the Arthasāstra will make it clear that the Śāstra referred to here is no other than the Arthasāstra.

67. A comparison of the following passage with that found in the Arthasāstra furnishes additional evidence to prove that the Arthasāstra was very well known to the author of the Panchatantra and that he had freely borrowed from the former :—

A thasâstra says regarding the formation of circles of States and groups of circles of four States each. The formation of a circle of States is thus described in the Arthasâstra. (VI. 2.) :—

The conqueror, his friend and his friends' friends are the three primary kings constituting a circle of States. As each of these three kings possesses the five elements of sovereignty, such as the minister, the country, the fort, the treasury, and the army, a circle of States consists of eighteen elements. Thus it needs no commentary to understand that the three circles of States having the enemy of the conqueror, the Madhyama King or the Udâsîna King at the centre of such of the three circles are different from that of the conqueror. Thus there are four primary circles of States, twelve kings, sixty elements of sovereignty and seventy-two elements of States.

The meaning of the above passage is this :—

1. The conqueror's circle of States.
2. The enemy's circle of States.
3. The Madhyama King's circle of States.
4. and the Udâsîna King's circle of States.

Each circle consists of three kings and the four circles twelve kings. As each of the twelve kings has five elements, the total number of elements is sixty. These sixty elements with the twelve kings amount to seventy-two elements.

70. The passage of the Panchatantra runs as follows :—

Chaturmaṇḍalâ-vasthânam tvidam Sinbah sinhânuyâyî Kâkaravah kimvṛittah iti maṇḍalâni tatra cha sarvēshvêva grâmanagara-pattanâdhishtâna-khêta-kharva-ṭôdyânâgrahâra-kânana-vanasthânêshvêka êva sinhas sthânîyô bhavati katipayâh sinhânuyâyinah tantradhârâh ; kâkarava-vargah madhyama-vargah ; kimvṛittâ evân-yasthâna-vâsinah.

Professor Edgerton translates the passage as follows :—

“ Now the position of the four circles is as follows :—

The circles are the lion, the lion's retainers, the Kâkaravas, and the Kimvṛittas. Of these the lion alone is the local ruler in all the places of the country, villages, towns cities, settlements, farming and mountain hamlets, parks, villages granted to Brahmans, woods and forests. There are a certain number of lion's retainers who are the office-holders. The Kâkarava groups are the middle classes. The Kimvṛittas are of course those that occupy other positions.”

To elucidate the translation, he adds a note at the foot of the page 276 as follows :—

“ Nothing is known of these four circles, except what appears from this passage. Apparently they are supposed to be social divisions among the inhabitants of the lion's kingdom. They are perhaps conceived as corresponding vaguely to the four main castes of Hindu Society, though the correspondence is certainly far from perfect. The words Kâkarava, (a crow's voice) and Kimvṛitta (what became, perhaps miscellaneous groups ) are wholly obscure in application.”

71. If Professor Edgerton had however taken the trouble of consulting the Arthasâstra, on the formation of a circle of States, he would have perceived no difficulty in explaining the passage of the Panchatantra and made no unwarranted reference to the four castes. What is really meant in the passage is the four circles of States belonging to (1) the Lion, (2) Lion's followers (3) the Kâkaravas and (4) the Kimvṛittas. Evidently the lion holds the conqueror's position and his circle of States is made up of (1) his own State (2) his friend's State and (3) his friend's friend's State. Sinhânuyâyî is Madhyama King having a second circle of States made up of (1) his own State (2) his friend's State (3) his friends' friend's State. Kâkarava is an Udâsîna King having his own circle of three States. Evidently Kimvritta (what-became) is an enemy having his circle of States consisting of (1) his own State, (2) his friend's State, and (3) his friend's friend's State.

72. Among these four circles the lion holding a conqueror's position has his own villages, etc., and is planning to conquer the Kimvritta, his enemy.

73. It follows therefore that the Panchatantra is doubtless based upon the Arthaśâstra of Kauṭilya borrowing as it does not only ideas but also phrases and sentences here and there. Hence it may be asserted that the Arthaśâstra of Kauṭilya surely dates from about 300 B. C.

(3) GUDHA-LEKHYA OR SECRET WRITING.

74. Archaeologists and numismatists are of opinion that so far back as the 4th and the 5th centuries B.C. the art of writing was very well known in India. Coins with the inscription 'Negama' in Brâhmi characters on the reverse are assigned by Prof. Rapson to at least the beginning of the 4th century B.C. Considering the references to writing in the earlier Buddhist Birth Stories, Prof. Buhler and other scholars held the opinion that writing was in existence in India even so early as the 6th century B. C. Those who have reason to believe in the indigenous origin of the Devanâgarî alphabet think that writing was in use so far back as the time of Janaka, King of the Vidêha Country, and father-in-law of Râma, the hero of Râmâyana. It follows therefore that writing was current during the 4th century B. C. when Kauṭilya, the author of the Arthaśâstra, is believed to have flourished.

75. Considering the prevalence of espionage during the Maurya period as testified by Megasthenes there is reason to believe that along with writing there was also the contrivance of secret-writing devised for purposes of espionage. "If a mendicant woman" says Kauṭilya (I. 12) "is stopped at the entrance, the line of door-keepers, spies under the guise of father and mother, women artisans, court-bards or prostitutes shall, under the pretext of taking in musical instruments or through secret-writing, or by means of signs, convey the information to its destined place."

76. As will be seen, secret-writing differed in no way from ordinary writing then in use. - What constituted the difference between them lay in changing the order of syllables of the words written or spoken. When spoken it is called Mlechchhita or confused speech and when written, gûdhalekhyâ or secret-writing. There seem to have been many varieties of secret speech. While commenting on the sixty four arts mentioned in the Kâmasûtra of Vâtsyâyana, Yaśodhara ascribes the device of one variety to Kauṭilya and a second variety to Mûladeva and describes them as follows :—

yat sâdhu-śabdôpanibaddham apy akshara-vi-paryâśâd aspashtârtham

tan mlêchchhitam gûdha-vastu-mantrârtham |

tasya vikalpâ bahavaḥ pûrvâchâryôktâḥ |

tad yathâ Kauṭilyam ||

I tâdi-kshântasya kâdêścha svarayôr hrasva-dîrḡnayôḥ |

bindûshmaṇôr viparyâśâd durbôdham iti sanchitam ||

II akaukhagau ghaṇau chaiva chaṭau ṇaṇau tapau namau |

yaśau rashau lasau chêti vahau kṣalau jaḍau ḍa bau ||

êtê vyastâ sthirâś śêśhâ Mûladêvîyam uchyate ||

III graha-nayana-vasu-samêtam shadânanâ-kshâṇi sâgarâ munayah ||

jvalanô gaṇḍakaśringam durliknitam gûdha-lêkhyamidam || iti

77. "What, though grammatically formed, becomes unintelligible on account of changing the order of syllables in words is called Mlechchhita or confused speech, devised for secret information. There are many varieties of this form of writing devised by ancient teachers. For example, that which was devised by Kauṭilya is as follows :—

I. By changing the letters commencing with ta and ending with ksha for letters beginning with ka (and ending with na), by changing short vowels for long ones, and by changing the four bindus (anusvāra, visarga, jīhvāmūliya and upadhmanīya) for the four ūshma letters (ś, sh, s, h), respectively and vice versa, and written with trouble, it (the writing) is called durbodha, unintelligible.

II. Change of the one for the other in the pairs a and ka; kha and ga; gha and ṇa; cha and ṭa; ṇa and ṇa; ta and pa; na and ma; ya and śa; ra and sha; la and sa; va and ha; ksha and ḷa; ja and ḍa; da and ba; the rest being left as they are, constitutes Mūladeva's secret speech or writing.

III. Grahas (Soma cups or planets=9), nayana (eyes=2), Vasu (gods of the name=8), śaḍānana (six-faced God=6), aksha (senses=5), sāgara (oceans=4), munis (seven sages=7), Jvalana (fires=3), gaṇḍakaśringa (horn of the rhinoceros=1), syllables written in this order (i. e., 9th letter in the first place, 2nd in its own place, 8th in the 3rd place, 6th in the 4th place, 5th in its own place, 4th in the 6th place, 7th in its own place, 3rd in the 8th place, and the first in the 9th place, constitute Gūḍhalekhyā or secret-writing."

78. As an example of the last variety of secret writing, we may take the following sentence conveying secret intelligence to a king.

śatrur āyāti bahir dhāva

"The enemy comes; run away."

These syllables when misplaced will read as —

vatrudhābatyāhira śa

The same expressed in the Mūladevīya form will read as follows :—

'yapsh ushā śāpida vishdhāha

In the Kauṭīliya form it will read as follows :—

mākṭhū ṭhatakī jāb' pīṭh ghaḍbā

79. Verses with such misplacement of syllables or letters are called Vyākulākshara-śloka, or verses of confused letters in Tāntric works. While commenting on the word Hṛimkāri' the three hundred and first of the thousand names of Goddess Lalitā in the Lalitāsahasranāma, Bhāskararāya refers to Vyākulākshara verses and writes as follows :—

tasyārthas tu svatantratantre vyākulākshara—ślōkēnōktah :—

tvam kāmāmnāna praśavyô nā namas agni mā tvagra !

rôma iyô kârvirśa ta nanta phādulanân nibim ! iti !

dēvatā-ratha-gômūka iti yô vētti na kramam !

sa vyākulāksharē mûkô dēvatārathagô' pi san ||

iti vāchana-kramah—

Translated into English this means :—

"The meaning of it (hṛim) is stated in the Svatantratantara in a verse in which the letters are put out of order, as 'tvam kāmāmnā, etc. ;' whoever does not understand the order pointed out in the word 'dēvatāratha gomūka' has to shut his mouth in the interpretation of a verse of disordered syllables, though he may be riding in the chariot of the goddess."

80. What is meant in the above puzzle is this. In order to understand the proper order of syllables in a verse of deranged syllables, it is necessary to know the order of disorder pointed out in the word 'devatârathagomûka.'

81. Evidently the letters in 'devatârathagomûka' are indicative of numerals according to the convention of Indian astronomers and astrologers. It is very well known to the students of Indian astronomy how in Indian astronomical works numerals are denoted by Ka and other consonants: The nine letters from Ka to jha or from ta to dha denote the nine digits in order. Na denotes cipher. The five letters from pa to ma signify the first five digits in order. The eight letters from ya to ha symbolise the first eight digits in order. Applying this rule to devatâ ratha gomûka, we can understand that it implies 8, 4, 6, 2, 7, 3, 5, 1, as the order of the disordered letters. Accordingly if the syllables in the deranged verse are put in order in the above way, the verse reads as follows:—

Vyomnâ prakâśamânatvam

tayorvimarśa i-kârah

bindunâ tanniphâlanam ll

82. The meaning of this verse is that h in hrîm called Vyoma, sky, denotes light, or splendour and r termed fire indicates devouring. The letter i signifies the investigation of the idea conveyed by these two letters and the nasal sound the contemplation on the whole idea.

83. Attention may be drawn here to the writer's article on 'A theory of the Origin of the Devanâgarî Alphabet' published in the Indian Antiquary Volume for 1905, regarding the appropriateness of the names of the letters of the Brâhmî alphabet to their respective hieroglyphical symbols which they were in their origin.

84. It is to be noted that in the form of the secret writing devised by Kautilya the alphabet is divided into three groups, the vowels, the consonants and the bindus. Among the vowels, the short are substituted for the long and vice versa. Among the consonants, the thirty letters from Ka to Ksha without the ūshma letters are divided into two groups of fifteen each. The fifteen of the first group are substituted for the fifteen of the 2nd group in their serial order. The four bindus, Anusvâra, Visarga, Jihvâmûliya and Upadhmânîya are replaced by śa, sha, sa, ha respectively in secret writing. This form is simple. The Mûladeviya form is simpler than this and must therefore be later than the Kautiliya.

85. The third variety is applicable to prose and changes the order of syllables in a group of nine syllables. As numbers are denoted by names of gods and things, this form seems to be quite later than that of Mûladeva's device and cannot be earlier than the 6th century A. D. when the collective name of planets was used for nine. The Tântic device may be of the same period in as much as it makes use of alphabetic letters to denote numerals.

(4) SCHISM AMONG THE EARLY JAINAS AND THE DATE OF KANADA.

86. Besides the later division of the Jainas into two branches, the Svêtâmbaras and the Digambaras, there are recorded seven more earlier splits in the Sthânânga, Uttarâdhyayana and other sūtras. These sūtras are written in the early form of the Prākṛit language and cannot be later than the 6th century A. D. They furnish information about the teaching of Mahāvîra and the opposition he had to encounter not merely from the followers of other religions, but also from his own disciples. In connection with other religions, a number of sects that have long been extinct are mentioned. The splits that occurred both during and after the life of Mahāvīra are termed Nibavas, denials, in the sūtra texts. They are so called because they originated among the followers of Mahāvīra himself. The Sthānāṅga-sūtra says as follows : (PP.468-469) :—

“When and after Lord Mahāvīra preached his doctrine, there were seven contradictions and denials of his teaching, such as (1) the doctrine of work in unlimited time, (2) the doctrine of the soul’s extension, (3) the Avyakta doctrine, (4) the doctrine of momentary existence, (5) the doctrine of double sensation, (6) the doctrine of three or six categories, and (7) the doctrine of no bondage.”

87. The teachers of the above doctrines are named (1) Jamali, (2) Tishyagupta, (3) Āśhādhāchārya, (4) Āsāmītra, (5) Ganga, (6) Aulukya, and (7) Gōshtha-mahīla.

88. Among the seven systems, the doctrine of three or six categories is said to have been founded by Aulukya, a descendant of Ulūka (owl) gōtra called Rōhaguptāchārya, disciple of Śriguptāchārya, a Jaina teacher, in the year 544 after the Nirvāṇa of Mahāvīra. As Mahāvīra is said to have attained his Nirvāṇa in B. C. 527, it follows that the Aulukya doctrine of six categories was founded in A. D. 17. The six categories, treated of in the Aulukya or Vaiśēshikadarśana, as it is also called, are (1) Dravya (substance), (2) Guṇa, (quality), (3) Karma, (action), (4) Sāmānya, (universals) (5) Samavāya, and (6) Viśēsha (speciality). The three categories are (1) Jīva, (Being), (2) no-jīva, (non-being) and (3) Jīvājīva, (intermediate between being and non-being).

89. The founder of the Aulukya or Vaiśēshika system is called Kāṇāda in Brahmanic Sanskrit literature and nowhere is he known as Rōhagupta except in the Jaina sūtras referred to above. As he is believed to have been the first to preach the atomic theory of matter it is surmised that he is given the nickname, Kāṇāda, eater of atoms. In consonance with his theory that matter is built of atoms, he must eat up atoms with a view to build his material body. But a perusal of what the Anuyōgadvāra-sūtra of the Jainas says regarding the sects and sectarian practices inclusive of the Kāṇādas during the early centuries of the Christian era goes to show that the word Kāṇāda is not at all a term of reproach, but an appellation given to a religious sect founded by Gautama, the preacher of atomic theory of matter in virtue of their religious custom of gleaning grains of corn (Kaṇas) from the fields for the sustenance of their life.

90. As the life and practice of religious sects given in the Anuyōgadvāra-sūtra Page 63) is very interesting and is likely to throw a flood of light on the practices of Hindu ascetics in the first few centuries of the Christian era, a translation of the portion of the Sūtra dealing with religious sects is given here.

91. The name of the first sect in the order of enumeration is given as Charakas. They are so called, says the commentary on the Sūtras, because of their begging for food (bhikshācharaṇa) or of their eating while moving.

The second is Chīrikas who clothed themselves with rags found thrown out on roads.

The third sect is called Charma-Khaṇḍikas who covered their body with animal skins.

Bhikshāṭas (The text reads Bhikshaudas) are those who live upon alms. They formed a different sect. Though they were a pastoral people, they never used to drink the milk of the cows they reared. They are said to have formed a branch of the Buddhists.

Pāṇḍuranga is the name of another sect. They besmeared their body with white ashes and used to wander with bulls trained so as to bow down and make salutes to respectable men when required.

Gautamas formed a different sect. They lived upon grains (Kaṇas) gleaned from fields. They were known as Kaṇabhikshāgrāhins or Kaṇādas.

Gōvratika is the name of another sect. Living in the midst of cows, they used to move when the cows they reared moved, to sit when they sat, to drink when they drank and to eat grass, leaves and fruits when their cows grazed on pasture grounds. It is interesting to note that it is the same Gōvratika life which, as described by Kālidāsa in the first Canto of his Raghuvamśa, Dilīpa lived while serving Vasishṭha's cow in the forest with the hope of getting a son to perpetuate his genealogy. It follows therefore that long before the 5th century A. D., when Kālidāsa lived and wrote his poetical works at the court of Chandragupta Vikramāditya II, the Gōvratikas formed a conspicuous religious sect in India.

Gṛihidharma is the name of another sect, the members of which are said to have lived like house-holders.

In condemnation of the life of this sect, a Sanskrit verse is quoted in the commentary. It means: "Those who live the life of a house-holder considering that no one lived such a virtuous life in the past nor will there be any one except the house-holder to live such a life in the future :—these are heretics incapable of doing anything else."

Some are known as Aviruddha-Vainayikas, or those who live under the orders of elders such as the king, the parents and the teachers.

Heretics or pāśhaṇḍas formed a different sect. They believed neither in sin, nor merit, neither in heaven nor in hell. But they discarded all kinds of action. (Vṛiddha-Śrāvakas or old Brahmanas formed a different sect.)

92. These sects worshipped one or the other of the gods, such as Indra, Skanda, Rudra, Śiva, Vaiśravaṇa, Dēva, Nāga, Bhūta, Mukunda, and Āryā (a goddess like Durgā). Their worship consisted in sweeping and washing the floor of the temples and the offering of scents, flowers and the like to the deity.

93. Though the information furnished by the Jaina Sūtras regarding the early religious sects and the rise of the Vaiśeṣhika or Aulukya system of philosophy, is traditional, there is reason to accept it as reliable; for the composition of the Sūtra texts themselves is not far removed from the epoch to which the Vaiśeṣhika system is assigned. The Nandi Sūtra which is one of the early Sūtra texts of the Jainas cannot be taken later than the first century A. D., in as much as it makes mention of no later teacher than Dinna among the successive teachers from Mahāvīra.

94. In the Gurvāvali, Dinna is said to be the 14th teacher from Mahāvīra and about two generations earlier than Vajra, the 16th teacher in whose time Rôhagupta is said to have founded his system of six categories opposing the Jaina doctrine about 544 years after the Nirvāṇa of Mahāvīra. From this it follows that the Nandi-sūtra was composed somewhere about the first century A. D. when the Jaina teachers that succeeded Dinna had not yet established their claim to reverence as worthy teachers.

95. Another reason in support of the antiquity of the Nandi and other sūtras is the antiquated form of the theory of knowledge set forth in them. It classifies valid knowledge as pratyaksha, perception, and parōksha, non-perception, which teachers of almost all religions following the Vaiśeṣhika system of theory of knowledge have called Anumāna, inference. It is what is termed sylogistic argument. As this form of valid knowledge is termed parōksha instead of Anumāna, it follows that Anumāna or sylogism taught for the first time by Kaṇāda in India was either unknown to the author of the Nandi-sūtra or not acceptable to him. Hence it follows that the Nandi Sûtra is a work written about the first or second century A. D. when syllogism as a means of testing the validity of knowledge was not generally known or accepted in India. Accordingly the traditional information recorded in the Nandi and other sûtras of the Jainas concerning the Aulukya system may be taken as reliable, since those works are not far removed from the epoch of Kāpāda.

(5) THE DATE OF BHĀMAHA, THE AUTHOR OF KAVYĀLANKĀRA.

96. Bhāmaha is usually considered to be one of the earliest writers on rhetoric. But there has been no consensus of opinion among scholars as to the epoch when he lived. All that can be definitely said about his time is that he was a little later than Kālidāsa and earlier than Subandhu, the author of Vāsavadattā. Bhāmaha seems to refer to Kālidāsa's Mēghadūta or "Cloud Messenger" when in giving an example of improbability or absurdity as a literary defect, he says "That the employment of the cloud, the wind or the moon as a messenger is as absurd as the employment of the bee, the pigeon, the duck, or the parrot. For, how can the speechless or the babbler, though capable of travelling very far, carry a message? This is, however, against common sense. If, however, any one speaks like a mad man owing to disappointed love, then let it be so, for this device is very often made use of by the most talented poets."*

97. In the last sentence Bhāmaha seems to justify Kālidāsa's device of making the cloud a messenger of the Yaksha in his Mēghadūta. The critic's justification is but a brief paraphrase of the poet's own defence expressed in the last quarter of the 5th verse of the first canto. The poet says there that those that are overcome by love are naturally indiscriminating between the sentient and the insentient.

98. In the introduction to his commentary on the Sētubandha, Rāmadāsa (1652 A. D.) says that under the orders of King Vikramāditya, Kālidāsa wrote the Sētubandha in the Prākṛit language for Pravarasēna. King Vikramāditya here can possibly be no other than Chandragupta II of the Gupta dynasty, inasmuch as he is associated with Pravarasēna, one of the Vākātaka kings. It follows therefore that Kālidāsa flourished and wrote his works in the first half of the 5th century A. D. Bhāmaha may therefore be taken to have lived either at the close of the 5th century or in the first half of the 6th century A. D. as there is reason to believe that he preceded Subandhu, the author of Vāsavadattā. Subandhu's version of the story of Vāsavadattā is quite different from that which Bhāmaha criticises as quite incredible and opposed to the usage of the world and to the dictates of political science (lōkaśāstra-viruddha) concerning the conduct of a conqueror (Vijigīṣhu). The story of Vāsavadattā is as old as Patañjali, inasmuch as he refers to it in his commentary on Pāṇini IV 3, 57. One of the versions of the story based upon the Brī'atkathā is found narrated in Sōmadēva's Kathāsaritsāgara and it seems to be the Brī'atkathā version that Bhāmaha has condemned as incredible and opposed to the usage of the world and to the dictates of political science. Chandamahāsēna, the king of Avanti made a large artificial elephant similar to the one reared by Udayana, the king of the Vatsas. After filling it with armed soldiers, he sent it to the Vindhya forest bordering upon the Vatsa country with a view to entice Udayana to come out of his capital for capturing the elephant. As expected, Udayana came alone to see and capture it, was himself caught hold of by Chandamahāsēna's soldiers and taken as a prisoner to Avanti where he married Vāsavadattā.

99. Bhāmaha condemns this story as incredible and opposed to the usage of the world, inasmuch as no king like Udayana who was well informed and had able ministers to advise him could be believed to go out with no assistance to elephant-forest at sunset, however fond he might be of elephants. It is also opposed to the dictates of political science, inasmuch as no king like Udayana ever bent on making extensive conquests would be foolish enough to enter upon such a risky adventure as he is said to have done.

100. Subandhu's version of the story of Vāsavadattā is not liable to such charges. If that work had existed in Bhāmaha's time he would not have failed to notice it in this connection. As Subandhu refers to Vikramāditya (i.e., Chandragupta Vikramāditya) in whose court Kālidāsa also is said to have been a poet, it follows that the capital of Chandragupta Vikramāditya was a haven of poets and scholars like Kālidāsa, Bhāmaha, Subandhu and others and that each poet or scholar was familiar with the literary productions of others living in the place. Accordingly Bhāmaha may be presumed to have been earlier than Subandhu and a little later than Kālidāsa, as he refers to Kālidāsa and not to Bhāmaha.

101. There is also reason to believe that Bhāmaha was earlier than Daṇḍi for while Bhāmaha acknowledges no dhvani or suggestiveness as a source of poetical excellence and condemns such expressions as "The Sun has set, the moon has risen and the birds repair to their nests" to be a commonplace utterance devoid of poetical merit, Daṇḍi on the other hand, sanctions dhvani as a feature of poetical excellence, and regards the expression quoted above as a specimen of beautiful poetry.

102. The date of Vāchaspatimiśra.—The author of Nyāyakaṇṭhikā, Nyāyatattvasamīkshā, Tatvabindu, Nyāyavārtika-tātparyatikā, Tatvavaiśārādī, Bhāmatī, Sāṅkhyatattvakaumudī, Nyāyasūchīnibandha and other works.

103. At the close of the Nyāya-sūchī-nibandha he gives the date of the completion of that work as follows:—

Nyāyasūchīnibandho' sāvakāri sudhiyām mude ||

śrī Vāchaspatimiśrēṇa vasvanka-vasuvatsare ||

"This Nyāyasūchīnibandha is composed for the pleasure of the learned by Vāchaspatimiśra in the year 898 (of Śālivāhana)."

104. Udayana, the author of Nyāyakusumājalī, Ātmatatva-Vivēka, and Tātparyapariśuddhi, a commentary on Vāchaspatimiśra's Nyāya Vārtikātātparyatikā, mentions the date of the completion of his Lakṣaṇāvalī at the end of that work as follows:—

Tarkāmbarāṅka pramīteṣhv atiteṣhu śakāntatah |

varshēṣhūdayanaś chakre subōdhām Lakṣaṇāvalīm ||

"When 906 years after the end of the Śakas have elapsed, Udayana composed the Lakṣaṇāvalī easy to understand."

105. From this it follows that Udayana lived in A. D. 984 and that Vāchaspatimiśra lived in A. D. 976. It also follows from this that these two famous scholars were contemporaries.

106. The date of Kolachala Mallinathasuri.—The famous commentator on poetical works of Kālidāsa and other celebrated poets.

107. Vaiśyavamśa-sudhārnava is one of the most interesting works written by Mallināthasūri under the orders of Rājādhirāja Rāja Paramēśvara Virapratāpa Praudhadēvarāya of Vijayanagar to determine whether or not the words, such as Vaiśya, Nagaravanik, Vanija, Vanī, Vyāpāri, Ūruja, Tṛitīyajāti, Svajātīyabhēdaja, Uttarapatha-nagarēśvaradēvatōpāsaka, found in an inscription in Kānchi (Conjivaram) mean a Vaiśya, as distinguished from one who is called Komaṭi.

108. From this it follows that Mallināthasūri lived at the court of Praudha Pratāpa Dēvarāya, A. D. 1419-1446 and that he was one of the judicial officers in the empire of Vijayanagar.

109. A TEST OF THE STARTING POINT OF THE GUPTA ERA.

Bhaṭṭakapatra grant of Dharasēna II of Valabhi, dated the 15th lunar day of the dark half of Vaiśākha with solar eclipse. Sam. 257.

D. B. Diskalkar, the Curator of the Watson Museum, Rajkot, says in his Annual Report for the year 1925-26 regarding the discovery of the above grant as follows:—

“While examining the old records of the Museum, I found a pair of impressions of two plates of a Valabhi grant, I could at once see that the grant is so far unpublished. The impressions were sent in 1904 to the late Mr. Vallabhji H. Acharya, the then Curator of the Watson Museum by a School Master of the village Bantia. It seems that the late Mr. Acharya was not successful in procuring the original plates. He also did not make known to scholars the existence of the plates. I have not yet been able to trace them.

The two plates, which seem measure 12"×8" and contain 17 and 15 lines of writing respectively contain a grant of the Valabhi King Dharasēna II which is practically identical with the Palitan grant of the same King of Sam. 252 (Epi. Ind. Vol. XI P. 80). The record opens with the name of the place, viz., Valabhi from where the grant was issued. Then as usual the genealogy of the Maitraka family from Bhaṭṭāraka, the founder to Dharasēna II, the donor of the grant, is given. The beneficiary is a Brahman named Dēvadatta of Śāṇḍilya-gôtra and Maitrāyaṇa Śākhâ. The property granted consists of a village named Bhaṭṭakapatra in the Northern part of Kaundīnypura in the Surāshṭras. The grant was written by Skandabhaṭṭa, the minister of peace and war and the Dutaka was Chirbhira. The date of the issue of the grant is the fifteenth day of the dark half of Vaiśākha of (Gupta-Valabhi) samvat 257 when there was a solar eclipse (Sūryôparāga).

Of Dharasēna II as many as twelve grants are known : seven of these are of Sam. 252 ; one of Sam. 269 ; two of Sam. 270, and the remaining two being fragmentary, do not give the dates. It will thus be seen that the long gap existing between the dates 252 and 269 is partly filled up by the discovery of the present grant. But the most important feature of this inscription is that it mentions that there was a Solar Eclipse on the fifteenth day of the dark half of Vaiśākha in Sam. 257. This item of new information will, I think, enable us to fix more accurately the starting point of the Gupta Valabhi Era."

On the strength of Prof. Wright's translation of the ambiguous statement made by Alberuni regarding the starting of the Gupta-Valabhi Era and in consideration of the Mandasor inscription of Malava Samvat 529, the Eran Pillar inscription of Budhagupta and the records of the Parivrājaka Mahārājās, the late Dr. Fleet fixed the epoch of A. D. 319-320 as Gupta Valabhi Samvat 0 current and of A.D. 320-321 as Gupta Valabhi Samvat 1 current. But in the two instances, viz., the Kaira Grant of the year 330 and the Verawal inscription of Valabhi Samvat 927, he took the epoch of A.D. 318-319 as Gupta Valabhi Samvat 1 current.

In the Mysore Archæological Report for the year 1922-23, A. D. 200-201 or A. D. 201-202 have been proposed for the starting point of the Gupta Era. The statement of Alberuni, the Mandasor inscription and the records of the Parivrājaka Mahārāja's together with traditional information concerning the Era preserved in the Jaina, Buddhistic and Brahmanic literature have all been explained so as to harmonise with the epoch of A. D. 201-202.

In this controversy, the above grant of King Dharasēna II dated Vaiśākha new moon with a solar eclipse of Gupta Samvat 257 cannot fail to be a decisive test as to which of the two epochs, viz., the epoch fixed by the late Dr. Fleet and the epoch proposed in the Mysore Archæological Report for the year 1922-23 is the real starting point. If on the new moon-day of the lunar month Vaiśākha in the 257th year counted from A. D. 318, 319, 320 or 321, the initial year of the Gupta Era as proposed by Dr. Fleet there was no solar eclipse, it must necessarily follow that A. D. 318, 319, 320 or A. D. 321 could not at all be the initial year of the Gupta Era.

If on the other hand there was a solar eclipse on the new moon-day of Vaiśākha in the 257th year counted from A. D. 200 or A. D. 201 or A. D. 202, it must necessarily follow that other facts being in harmony, the epoch of A. D. 200-201 or A. D. 201-202 must be the initial year of the Gupta Era. All that has to be done now is to find out whether there was a solar eclipse on any of the years referred to above. The problem can be easily worked out by using the late Dewan Bahadur L. D. Swamikannu Pillae's tables given in his Indian Chronology. The four initial years given by Dr. Fleet are A. D. 318, 319, 320, 321. Accordingly the 257th year from any of these four initial years is

1. A. D. 318+257=A. D. 575.
2. A. D. 319+257=A. D. 576.
3. A. D. 320+257=A. D. 577.
4. A. D. 321+257=A. D. 578.

Now taking A. D. 575, the problem is worked out by using Swami Kannu Pillae's tables as follows:—

A. D. 575.				1.	Days.
☉'s	distance	from	node	for century beginning A.D. 575 is	.. 23·76
Do	do	do	do	for odd year 75 is	.. 11·06
Do		at first	new moon	is solar year 575 is	.. 7·74
Do	do	at Vaiśākha	new moon	do	.. 29·53
					72·09

As the distance of 72·09 days does not fall between 0-15·5 days or between 157·7—173·3 days there was no solar eclipse on the Vaisakha new moon in the solar year 575. Hence A. D. 218 cannot be the initial year of the Gupta Era.

A. D. 576.				2.	Days.
☉'s	distance	from	node	for century beginning A.D. 576	.. 23·76
Do	do	do	do	for odd year 76	.. 29·69
Do		at first	new moon	in the solar year A.D. 576	.. 26·38
Do		Vaiśākha	new moon	.. ..	.. 29·53
					109·36

As this distance of 109·36 days does not fall between 0-15·5 or between 157·7—173·3 days, there was no solar eclipse on the Vaiśākha new moon in the solar year 576. Hence A. D. 319 cannot be the initial year of the Gupta Era.

A. D. 577.				3.	Days.
☉'s	distance	from	node	for century beginning A.D. 577	.. 23·76
Do	do	do	do	for odd year 77	.. 48·33
Do		at first	new moon	in the solar year 577	.. 15·48
Do		Vaiśākha	new moon	.. ..	.. 29·53
					117·10

As the distance of 117·10 days does not fall between 0-15·5 or between 157·7—173·3 days, there was no solar eclipse on the Vaiśākha new moon. Hence A. D. 320 cannot be the initial year of the Gupta Era.

A. D. 578.				4.	Days.
☉'s	distance	from	node	for century beginning A.D. 578	.. 23·76
Do	do	do	do	for odd year 78	.. 66·96
Do		at first	new moon	in the solar year 578	.. 4·59
Do		Vaiśākha	new moon	.. ..	.. 29·53
					124·74

As the sun was distant from node by 124·74 days and was not within a distance of 0-15·5 days or of 157·7-173·3 days there was no solar eclipse on the day in question in the solar year A. D. 578. Hence A. D. 321 cannot be the initial year of the Gupta Era.

Hence none of the years, A. D. 318, 319, 320 and 321 can be the initial years of the Gupta Era.

Taking the other proposed years such as A. D. 200, 201, 202, 203, the 257th year from each of them would be :—

(1) 457, (2) 458, (3) 459 or (4) 460.

A. D. 457.	1.	Days.
☉'s distance from node for century beginning A.D. 457	..	65·68
Do for odd year 57	..	22·27
Do at first new moon in the solar year A.D. 457	..	23·16
Do Vaisakha new moon	..	29·53
		<hr/> 140·64

As this distance of 140·64 days does not fall between 0-15·59 or 157·7-173·3 days, there was no solar eclipse on the day in question.

A. D. 458.	2.	Days.
☉'s distance from node for century beginning A.D. 458	..	65·68
Do for odd year 58	..	40·90
Do at first new moon in the solar year A.D. 458	..	12·26
Do Vaiśākha new moon	..	29·53
		<hr/> 148·37

As the distance of 148·37 days does not fall between 0-15·5 days or between 157·7—173·3 days, there could possibly be no solar eclipse on the Vaiśākha new moon day in the solar year A. D. 458.

A. D. 459.	3.	Days.
☉'s distance from node for century beginning A.D. 459	..	65·68
Do for odd year 59	..	59·54
Do at first new moon in the solar year 459	..	1·37
Do Vaiśākha new moon	..	29·53
		<hr/> 156·12

The distance here falls short of a day from 157·7. But there seems to have been an adhika Vaiśākha here and accordingly the true Vaisakha new moon came 29·53 days later in that year. Hence

	Days.
Adding 29·53 we get	.. 185·65
Deducting 173·31 days from the above	.. —173·21
	<hr/> 12·34

As this distance of 12·34 days falls between 0-15·59 days there was certainly a solar eclipse on the Vaiśākha new moon day in A. D. 459.

The late Dewan Bahadur Swamikannu Pillae who framed the above tables used here for calculation, has also recorded a solar eclipse on the new moon-day terminating Vaiśākha and beginning Jyēshṭha. (Vide his Indian Chronology 1st Edition P. 46.)

Again A. D. 460.	4.	Days.
☉'s distance from node for century beginning A.D. 460	..	65·68
Do for odd year 60	..	78·17
Do at first new moon in the solar year 460	..	20·01
Do Vaiśākha new moon	..	29·53
		<hr/> 193·39
Deducting 173·31 days from this	..	—173·31
		<hr/> 20·08

Here there was no solar eclipse on the new moon-day terminating Vaiśākha and beginning Jyēshtha. But on the new moon-day terminating Chaitra and beginning Vaiśākha, there was a solar eclipse.

For	Days.
65-68
78-17
20-01
	163-86

formed the distance of the sun from the node on the first new moon-day in the solar year A.D. 460.

As the people in the days of the Guptas could not be expected to have called the first new moon day, i.e., the Chaitra new moon-day as the Vaiśākha new moon-day, A. D., 460 could not be believed to be Sam. 257 of the grant. Hence A. D. 203 could not be taken the starting point of the Gupta Era.

Hence the only year that can be taken to be the starting point of the Gupta Era is A. D. 202—i.e., A. D. 201 expired and A. D. 202 current.

The plate is however dated Valabhi, G. S. 257 Vaiśākha Badi 15. But as the solar eclipse mentioned in the plate does not seem to have been visible at Valabhi, there is the risk of its being regarded as spurious unless it is presumed to have been issued in that part of the Gupta Empire where the eclipse was visible.

PART II—EPIGRAPHY.

110. The total number of records collected during this year is 172. Of these, copper plate grants are 20, Sannads 9, and the rest stone inscriptions. Distributed among dynasties, four relate to the Gangas, three to the Râshtrakûṭas, thirteen to the Châlukyas of Kalyân, one to the Sênavâras, two to the Sântaras, four to the Nolambas two to the Bânas, one to the later Kadambas, twenty-three to the Hoysalas, nineteen to the Kings of Vijayanagar, eleven to the Mysore Maharajas, six to the Nâyakas of Keladi and the rest to minor Palyagars and private individuals. The inscriptions about the Gangas (No. 3, 4 and 86) are of the reign of Śrîpurusha and Sivamâra (Śaka 777). Among the records relating to the Râshtrakûṭas, the Badanaguppe grant of prince Kambadêva dated Śaka 730 resembles the Manne grant (Ep. Car. Nelamangala Taluk 61).

This records the history of some Vellāla Brahmans noted for their knowledge in Astrology and Astronomy. One Appājōsyā, a descendant of the Vellāla family in Murukinād Province is said to have arrived at Kôlâr leaving Vellâla-Agrahâra during the War between the Aśvapatis and the Gajapatis and lived happily under the protection of Suguṭûr Tammaya, a paḷyagar King in Kôlâr. The date of arrival is mentioned to be Monday the 13th lunar day of the bright half of Mârgaśira in the year Raudri, Śaka 1474 corresponding to Monday the 30th November of A. D. 1552. The cyclic year of A. D. 1552 is Raudri according to Northern cycle.

This plate records the grant of some revenue both in kind and cash levied at a fixed rate from merchants importing merchandise into Kôlâr and payable to Sūrya-nârāyaṇabhaṭṭa. The rate of collecting grains is one half of a padi in respect of a cart-load of grains, one-eighth of a seer in respect of spices, half a seer in respect of a cart-load of sugar and tamarind, one-fourth of a seer in respect of a load of oil, clarified butter and tobacco and a rupee a week payable from a group of eight banking shops. The plate is dated the 15th lunar day of the bright half of Pushya in the year Vyaya, Śaka 1628 corresponding to A. D. 1706. The date is not verifiable. It ends with the usual imprecation.

Note.

This is said to be a copy of a sannad issued by Kṛishṇarâja Voḍeyar III, King of Mysore.

It records that Tangale Narasimhabhaṭṭa, Vāsudēvabhaṭṭa's son Narasimhabhaṭṭa Rāmachandrabhaṭṭa and other owners of vrittis, in the āgrahāra village Mattigaṭṭa in Chandamagere hōbali, Kṛṣṇarāja kaṭṭe taluk, went to the king and represented that they were originally paying a fixed quit-rent for their holdings, but were assessed half the value of the paddy produced in their lands, when some of the lands which originally were dry became wet after the completion of a channel from Kṛṣṇarājakaṭṭe which passed through their village. It was further represented that as half of the produce went to the raiyats and the other half went as assessment to Government, the owners of land were deprived of their income and were not even able to pay the quit-rent.

This record next states that as a result of the representation, the king reduced the total quit-rent payable for the village from 76 varahas 2 hannas 3 viṣas to 45 varahas remitting the balance of 31 varahas 2 hannas and 3 viṣas for the benefit of the owners of the vrittis and ordered Lakshmināraṇaiya, Amil (Amildar) of Kṛṣṇarājakaṭṭe to collect the assessment at the new rate from the year Āngirasa onwards and to give the original sanad recording the remission of tax to Tangale Narasimhabhaṭṭa and Rāmachandrabhaṭṭa, keeping a copy of the grant in the office.

The grant is dated 19th June, A. D. 1813 and contains the singature of the King as śrī Kṛṣṇa. The name of the munshi who drew up the sannad is stated to be Subbarāṇ.

Note.

This like the previous number, is said to be a copy of the sannad granted by King Krishnarāja Voḍeyar III of Mysore.

The usual invocatory stanzas addressed to goddess Chāmuṇḍi and Varāha found in the sannads of the King Krishnarāja Voḍeyar III are found at the beginning of this grant also. The record registers the gift of some plots of dry and wet land of the annual value of 36 varahas in the village Chikkammanahalli, in Ponnātapura Hôbali, Bêlûr Taluk, free of taxes and with all rights of possession to Kandāḍa Bhāshyakāra of Bêlûr, son of Rangāchārya and grandson of Krishnamāchārya by King Krishnarāja Voḍeyar III.

The date of the grant is given as 6th July, A. D. 1830, Tuesday 15th lunar day of the bright half of Āshāḍha in the year Vikṛiti. The grant was drawn up by Subbarāya, munshi in the palace and is addressed to the Āmīl of Bêlûr.

Note.

This inscription records the death of a person named Kallaya, son of Vira Rāmāyya, Manager of the temple of god Kaledēvaru in the village Haḷēyabiḍu in Mālyanāḍu, Thirty district in the reign of Hoysaḷa king Nārasimhadēva. He seems to have died in fighting for the interests of the temple in which he was Manager.

But the meaning of lines 14-15 which state the circumstances under which he died is not clear. It seems that he fought to prevent the confiscation of the siddhāya (quit-rent) due for the village Sigalūra, the property of the temple of God Kaledēvaru referred to above.

This record is of some interest as it is unusual to find in inscriptions, an instance of any person meeting his death in merely protecting temple property from unjust aggressors.

The inscription is dated Vaḍḍavāra 10th lunar day of the bright half of Āshādha in the year Vishu, 1204 of Śaka era. Śaka 1203 is Vishu and 10th lunar day of the bright half of Āshādha in this year corresponds to Saturday, June 18, A. D. 1281. Vaḍḍavāra is equivalent to Saturday according to Dr. Fleet. The usual imprecation concludes the grant.

This records the death of warriors Kāḷaya, Guḍagaunḍa and others in fighting on the side of the village Aggaḍalu in a boundary dispute between the villages Aggaḍalu and Ayiravalli against their opponents Bamagaunḍ, Bidiga, and Amma in the reign of Hoysala king Nārasimha.

The date of the record is stated to be Tuesday 10th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśākha in the year Kilaka, Śaka year 108. There seems to be some mistake in the figures of the Śaka year as engraved in the grant. The Śaka years 1110, 1170, 1230 all correspond to Kilaka in the reign of Hoysala kings of the name Nārasimha. None of these can be identical with the figure 108. It is therefore difficult to find out the correct date of the record.

It records the gift of some land on the holy occasion of Uttarāyana- sankramaṇa by the Hoysala king Vinayāditya to the Jaina guru Abhyachandrapaṇḍita of Belave, belonging to Mūla-sangha and a spiritual desendant of the gurus, Gautama, Bhadrabāhu, Pushpadanta and Mēghachanda. It is further stated that the land granted had to pay a sum of five haṇas as tax. A plot of paddy land with the sowing capacity of twenty-two salagas is also stated to have been granted by the same donor for the service of offering food to some god. Further some land is also recorded to have been given away with pouring of water to Abhayachandrapaṇḍita by Muddagaunḍa and Tippagaunḍa of Tolalahalli.

The inscription is dated the uttarayâna-sankrânti day of Śāka year 983 Subhakrit. Śāka 984, the succeeding year is identical with Subhākrit and corresponds to A. D. 1062. The date is not verifiable.

Note.

This registers the gift of a plot of paddy land free of taxes at the village Kûridavalli for the service of god Svayambhûdêva in the Kaikêśvara temple by King Mârasinga Sênavâra and the remission of taxes by the same king, on a plot of land previously given to the same temple by Vâmanayya.

The record is dated Monday, 5th lunar day of the bright half of Phâlguna in the year Krôdhi, Śaka 956. Śaka 956 however is identical with Bhâva and not Krôdhi. The nearest year Krôdhi is Śaka 986. We may therefore suppose that the figure 986 has been wrongly entered for 956 by the engraver. Taking the year Śaka 986 Krôdhi, the date in the record corresponds to Sunday, 13th February, A.D. 1065 on which date panchami tithi ended at .51 of a day or 12 hours 14 minutes after sunrise. But the week day is given as Monday in the record and not Sunday. Hence the date is irregular.

The king Mârasinga Sênavâra referred to in this inscription belonged to the family of Sênavâra Kings who were local chiefs in Kaḍûr District from 7th to 10th Century A. D. Their capital was Kûḍalûrpura probably the same as the present village Kûḍalûr in Chikmagalur Taluk. In some of their grants they call themselves as belonging to Khachara-vamśa and having the serpent flag and lion crest. The name Mârasinga of the Sênavâra chief probably indicates that he was a dependent upon the Ganga king Mârasinga who ruled about this time and that he took his name after his over-lord.

Translation.

In the land of Jambudvîpa, in the picturesque spot of Kaikêśvara, dwells Sambhu in the village Kûrdavalli. Once in that village a bull went from the Śiva temple to the rice field of Vâmanayya and ate grass. Vamanayya looked at it and foolishly snatching his merekôlu (staff with a hook used to toss the straw that has been trodden out by oxen and remove it to one side) fell upon the bull with the speed of lightning and beat it furiously. Thereupon the bull fell exclaiming "O, Śiva " Thus when the bull attained heaven, the spot where it fell became known as Bull's land thereafter. In the meanwhile Vâmanabhaṭṭa felt that his position was like that of the Brahmin woman in the fable who not understanding the true state of the affairs foolishly killed the mungoose and he therefore invited all the mahâjanas of the village and made, with pouring of water, a gift of wet land with the annual income of 2½ hanas.

Note.

This inscription is of some interest as it records a grant of land made to a temple in order to expiate the sin of killing a bull in anger. As this gift of land is referred to in the previous number belonging to the middle of 11th century it is to be inferred that the event recorded in this inscription took place before the middle of 11th century and the slaughter of cows and bullocks was looked upon as a great sin at that period.

Note.

This is a viragal of the reign of Hoysala king Nārasimha III. It records that on an attack on the village Biṭṭaravalli by the inhabitants of Vasudhāre, due to some old feud, Baichaya of Āḷuvali fell upon the village by stealth and slew a warrior named Rāmaiya and the sack of the village followed. It is next stated that Banna, younger brother of king's agent of Āṇūr fought with valour and died and that the citizens of Āṇūr six thousand district made a grant of the village Bārehalli in Hebbeṭṭa in his memory.

The record is dated Tuesday the 15th lunar day of the bright half of Āśhāḍha in the year Sarvadhāri, Śaka 1211. But Śaka 1211 is Virōdhi and the preceding year Śaka 1210 is Sarvadhāri. If we take the latter year the date corresponds to June 15 A.D. 1288 which falls on Tuesday as stated in the grant.

The sons of the fallen warrior, Cheṭṭaya and Hiriya Bavara Bamaya are stated to have maintained the grant and Dharmmachāri of Ānūr is named as the engraver of the inscription.

Note.

This is a viragal of the reign of Hoysala king Viṣṇuvardhana called also Biṭṭiga Hoysaladēva. It records the death of the warrior Sattiverggaḍe of the village Huṇasemakke in defence of his lord during an attack on the village Hannerāḍubīḍu by the king Viṣṇuvardhana during his invasion of the province Bayalnāḍ.

It is dated Wednesday, 5th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśākha in the year Sādhāraṇa, Śaka year 1058. But Śaka 1058 corresponds to Anala and not Sādhāraṇa as stated in the grant. The nearest year Sādhāraṇa is Śaka 1052. Even if we take Śaka 1052, the 5th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśākha falls on Monday and not Wednesday as stated in the grant. Hence the date is irregular.

Note.

This records the gift of the village Hiriya Tumbuli by Dēvaṇa, son-in-law of Lakshmaṇayya, with the permission of Hoysala King Vīra Ballāḷa to the mutt named Agnisṭage. This mutt was situated in the vicinity of Mārkaṇḍēya temple at Khāṇḍeya. The word agnisṭage means a pan in which sacred fire is kept up. This mutt seems to have differed from the usual mutts in as much as special arrangements were made for fire-worship in this mutt, while in ordinary mutts reside monks who do not worship fire.

The record is dated the year Plavanga, on the holy occasion of uttarāyaṇa-sankramaṇa. The date is not verifiable. It ends with the imprecation that those who violate the grant will be guilty of the sin of killing a cow on the banks of the rivers Tungabhadra.

Lakshmîdhara daṇṇayaka, the donor, was a minister of the Hoysala King Ballâḷa II. The grant is dated Friday the bright half of Chaitra in the year Krôdhana. The name of the tithi is left out in the grant. The date is not verifiable. The usual imprecation is found in the grant.

It is dated Friday the 15th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśākha in the year Pramôdûta, Śaka 1313 or A. D. 1391. But Śaka 1313 is Prajâpati, not Pramôdûta. Pramôdûta is Śaka 1312. Taking the year Pramôdûta, Śaka 1312, we find that the 15th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśākha falls on Saturday and not on Friday as stated in the grant. Taking Prajâpati, Śaka 1313, we find that the week day corresponding to above particulars of dating falls on Wednesday and not Friday. ## Note.

This inscription records the erection of a monument in memory of a Jaina guru named Lakshmisēnabhaṭṭāraka at Hosapaṭṭaṇa by Māyaṇa and Mākāṇa, two brothers of Vaiśya caste belonging to a family named Balagāra. It is stated in this inscription that the town Hosapaṭṭaṇa was the face of the goddess of the Hoysala Kingdom and a mirror of the goddess of the kingdom of Vīra Bukka. Several inscriptions of king Bukka of Vijayanagar refer to a town of the name Hosapaṭṭaṇa in the Hoysala country over which he is said to be ruling. It is identified by some with Hosūr in Gōribidnūr Taluk, or Hosadrug in Chitaldroog District. (See Mysore and Coorg from the Inscriptions, P. 114). The present record would tend to show that Hosapaṭṭaṇa was either the village Sakrepaṭṭa where the present inscription stone is found or some village in the neighbourhood.

The spiritual descent of the Jaina guru, Lakshmisēna is given as follows :—Vīrasēna was a Jaina teacher belonging to Sēna-gaṇa ; his disciple was Jinasēna ; his disciple was Guṇabhadra, a sun to Pustaka-gachchha ; his disciple was Sūrasēna ; his disciple was Kamalabhadra ; his disciple was Dēvēndrasēna ; his disciple was Kumārasēna ; his disciples were Harisēna ; and Prabhākarasēna ; Lakshmisēna was disciple of Prabhākarasēna. Madanasēna was also a disciple of Prabhākarasēna.

We next find the genealogy of the merchant Māyaṇa as follows : Māyaṇa of Vaiśya caste was a disciple of the Jaina guru Amarakīrti and a worshipper of Śaṅkha Jinendra (Nēmi Tirthankara whose emblem is conch) in the village Huligere and belonged to the family named Balagāra. His father was Hollarāja, mother Dēvamāmbe, paternal uncle Nāgarāja, and younger brother Mākāṇa. Māyaṇa and his brother Mākāṇa set up the epitaph in memory of the deceased Jaina guru Lakshmisēna-bhaṭṭāraka.

No date or name of the reigning king is given in the record.

This inscription begins with the usual invocation to Jina-śāsana and records the erection of a monument in memory of a Jaina guru Mānasēna, disciple of Lakshmisēna, royal preceptor (rāyarājagurumaṇḍalāchārya) by Māyasetṭi and Bommi-setṭi and Nāgaṇasetṭi, sons of Baichasetṭi of Muttadahosavūr and their grandsons Tammasetṭi (son of) Baichasetṭi, Kovari-setṭi, Chikka Baichasetṭi, Kovari-setṭi (son of) Mādisetṭi. The dating of the record is imperfect. The year is given as Pārthiva, Śaka 1328, Śaka 1327 is Pārthiva and corresponds to A. D. 1405. Further details are not given. The figure 10 occurring in line 4 after the name of the year Pārthiva-samvatsara may denote the lunar day of the date of the grant.

It is dated Sunday the 14th lunar day of the light half of Āshāḍha in the year Śārvari. The date is not verifiable. Hosavūr of this inscription may probably be the same as the village Hosapaṭṇa referred to in a previous number (48)

This records the grant of some lands at the village Haḍilakoppa in Hebbesenâḍ to Tipparasaheggade son of Hiraṇanâyaka, aliya (nephew ?) of . . . Sâlinâyaka and chief of ? villages Nemmâru, Gaṇḍagaṭṭanakallu and Tiricheballi by the illustrious Mallayasênabôva. These lands are stated to have formerly belonged to Huliyakôṭenâyaka and as he died without issue were given to Tipparasaheggade as the descendant of the former owner's aliya. The grant is recorded to have been made with the approval of the nâḍ, i.e., chief citizens of the district of Hebbase Twelve and the quit-rent payable on the land was raised from 2 varahas and 8 haṇas to 3 varahas and an additional payment of 1 haṇa for festival tax and one kandi of paddy for forced labour was imposed on the land. The boundaries of the land and the names of witnesses next follow.

The grant is dated Sunday 10th lunar day of the bright half of Vaiśâkha in the year Saumya, Śaka 1481. Śaka 1481 corresponds to Siddhârthi and not Saumya as stated in the grant. The date is irregular. The grant abounds in errors.

This records an annual grant of 600 varahas made by Kṛṣṇarājavaḍeyar III King of Mysore, to Siddhalingasvāmi, seated on the spiritual throne of Viśvārādhyā and guru of Jangamavāṭi-maṭha in Benares, in order that from this amount 12 Lingāyat priests (Gaṇas) might be fed at Benares every day. This sum of 600 varahas was ordered to be remitted every year by a huṇḍi (bank-note) to Benares on the birth-day of the King.

The grant is dated Friday, 2nd lunar day of the dark half of Āshāḍha in the year Parābhava, 1767 of Śālivāhana era. The English equivalent of the above date is also given in the grant as 10th July A. D. 1846 which falls on a Friday. This date corresponds to 2nd lunar day of the dark half of Āshāḍha of Śaka 1768. Apparently Śaka 1767 in the grant denotes the expired year.

This is said to be a copy of a copper plate grant the original of which is not forthcoming. It records the grant of right to collect Kâṇike (a religious levy in cash) from persons other than Jiyas, goldsmiths, Kômaṭis, Bhûsuras (brahmans), Tigalas, and Mēdars residing in Ānandapura, Sadâsivanagara, Chandragutti, Vuḍugere, Sikâripura, Kuṁsi, Śivamogge, Tarikere, Lakkuvaḷḷi, Maṇḍagadde, Hoḷehonnûr, Chennagiri, Basavâpaṭṭana, Śirasi, Harapanahallî, Kaḍûr, Āraga, Madhuvankanâḍu, Vastâre, Tâlaguppe and Keḷadi on the 9th lunar day of the light half of Mâgha in the year Parâbhava, Śaka 1646, made by Śivappanâyaka of Keḷadi to Basavalingaya of Bâḷehonnûr Matt, on the latter's representation that he may be invested with the power of collecting Kappa and Kâṇike in the 300 villages of Humchasîme and that Sômasêkharanâyaka deprived the Math of the above power and conferred it on Śringa Śâstri of Śringêri.

Śaka 1646 corresponding to A. D. 1724 coincides with Krôdhi and not with Parâbhava, as stated in the grant. Śringaśâstri as the name of the head of Śringêri Matt is never heard of. For the reasons the grant may be regarded as spurious.

Note.

This records the confiscation of the images of gods, conchshell, cane, pearl necklace, chair, white umbrella and other insignia of the Bālehonnūr Math and the transfer of the above articles to the Śringaśāstri along with the enumerated rights of the former Math by Sōmesēkhāranāyaka on the second lunar day of the dark half of Vaiśākha in the year of Ānanda, Śaka 1594 equivalent to A.D. 1672.

In this record also the cyclic year does not coincide with the Śaka year and Śringaśāstri as the name of the head of Śringēri Math is unheard of. For these reasons the record may be regarded as spurious.

Note.

The sannad is in Kannada language and characters and dated Saturday the 4th lunar day of the dark half of Bhādrapada in the year Sarvadhāri, and Saturday the 27th of September A. D. 1828 and written by Munshi Anṇaya and signed by His Highness Kṛishṇarāja Vodyer.

After enumerating the titles of the Math and stating the names of only a few swamins from Rēṇukāchārya to Gurusiddhasvāmi, then the head of Math, the sannad mentions the titles of the Mysore Royal family and directs the svāmi not to make use of torch-light during the day time (Hagalu-divaṭige). It states that if the Math has any record to show that the Matt has had the privilege of using torch-light during the day the privilege may be renewed and not otherwise, as it would wound the feelings of Brahmins and other people.

Note.

This consists of a single copper plate, both sides of which are engraved, belonging to the Lingāyat mutt at Bālehonnūr which is regarded as the seat of one of the five original gurus of the Lingāyat religion. The grant is incomplete as some plates preceding and following the present copper plate are lost. Hence the middle portion of the grant only is found in this record.

The signatures of certain witnesses to the grant are first found in this inscription. We next find it recorded that in the 5th year of his rule Pittanavāḍa Sendanān alias Jayamurinādālvān, made a gift of land, in order that from the produce there of, an offering of five fruits, one piḍi (a measure) of ghee, and curds might be made to 32 Brahmans every month on the day of the constellation Rēvati, in which constellation his mother Kalanduraiāḍigaḷ was born. The boundaries of the land next follow.

This records the construction of Basavēśvarasvāmi temple and some shops in the year Chitrabhānu and the consecration of the image of God Basavēśvara in the said temple in the year Svabhānu by Virappagaḍa, eldest son of Dēvaṇṇagaḍa, son of Virappagaḍa of the village Chinuga in Kittalenāḍ, in Gōṇibīḍ-sime. The inscription concludes with the statement that it was composed by Lingappaiya, son of Aṇṇaiya, shanubhog of Gōṇibīḍ and with a prayer for the welfare of the person who caused the temple to be built.

Note.

This inscription is engraved on a stone on which an old Jaina inscription was previously incised. The old inscription has been obliterated and the letters of the new inscription have been written over the surface. Still some faint traces of Hoysala types of letters of the previous inscription can be detected. The present inscription seems to record an agreement at the instance of one Kālappanāyaka between two sects of Goldsmiths, the Pāñchālādavaru of the village Gōṇibīḍ, and Kannāḍa Vīra Pāñchālādavaru of Vīra-samaya Sunāluvas that they would freely intermarry between members of the two sects and also that they would pay some money contribution for the service of their family deity, at the time of marriage.

Note.

This image with the figures of 24 Jaina Tirthankaras engraved on it seems to have been brought from some ruined Jaina temple and set up in the present Banni Mahankāli temple. Although it is a Jaina figure it is worshipped by goldsmiths who are the chief devotees of the temple probably on account of their ignorance of the nature of the image. This inscription on the pedestal of the image merely records that the Chauvisa Tirthankara image was set up by some one at the conclusion of a vow of worshipping the god Ananta.

Note.

This is said to be a copy of a copper-plate grant the original of which is not forthcoming. This record registers the gift of the village Hāruvahallī, belonging to Bairakūr, free of taxes, to Timmarājabhaṭṭa, son of Venkaṭarāmabhaṭṭa of Śrīvatsagôtra, Āpastambasūtra and Yajuś-śākhā, made by Nanjegauḍa, nāḍu-prabhu (Chief of Nāḍu) in the reign of Vijayanagar King Tirumaladēva seated on the jewelled throne at Chendragiri. The grant is stated to have been made with pouring of water on gold, in the presence of God Raghunāyaka on the holy occasion of solar eclipse on Saturday 30th lunar day of the dark half of Phālgūṇa in the year Īśvara, 1499 of Śālivāhana era. This date corresponds to Saturday March 8, A.D. 1578 on which day a Solar eclipse is shown as having occurred according to Svamikannu Pillay's Tables.

The grant concludes with three stanzas eulogising the merit of making a gift of land, which may be translated as follows :—

The merit that one gets by making thousands of horse-sacrifices and hundreds of Vājapēya-sacrifices is attained by the gift of land. One can count the number of dust particles on earth and that of the drops of rain ; but even Brahma cannot calculate (the merit attained from) the gift of land made to Brahmans. Poison is said to be no poison, but the property of Brahmans is said to be real poison. Poison kills only one while the confiscation of the property of Brahmans kills not only the person who seizes it but also his sons and grandsons.

Translation.

Be it well. While Dilipayya was ruling over the earth, and Tribhuvanakartar was governing the spiritual kingdom (tapa-rājya), Mane Mudda Mallaya, warrior of Balla, protected the cows in a cattle raid of the village (Balla) and attained heaven in fighting. Poraka Maleya set up the stone.

Note.

This record belongs to the reign of the Nolamba King Dilipayya also known as Irivi Nolamba who seems to have been reigning from circa 943 to 956 A. D. The inscription further states that Tribhuvanakartar was governing the kingdom of tapas (tapa-rājyaṃ geye). A similar reference is found to Tribhuvanakartar in two other inscriptions of the village Balla (Ep. Carn X Mulbagal Taluk 94 and 264) and in one inscription of Āvani (Mysore Archæological Report for the year 1923, P. 53). In some other inscriptions of the same villages (Ep Carn X Mulbagal Taluk 91, 93, Mysore Archæological Report for the year 1923, P. 54) Tribhuvanakartar is stated to have been the lord of the sthāna (management of temples) of Āvani (Āvanyada sthānaman-âluttire). From these it is evident that Tribhuvanakartar was a powerful priest at the time and that he was entrusted with the management of temples in the district of Āvanya or Āvani.

The present inscription records the death of a warrior named Manemudda Mallaya in defence of the cattle of the village, Balla and the setting up of a stone in memory of the departed hero by Poraka Maleya.

Note.

This and the succeeding two inscriptions belonging to the reign of Nolamba king Dilipayya, refer to Tribhuvanakartabhaṭārār as the ruler of sthāna. (See also Number 96). This inscription records the death of the warrior Balameṇḍigāmuṇḍa in a cattle raid and the grant of a plot of wet land with the sowing capacity of 10 koḷagas in memory of the heroic act. The usual imprecation concludes the grant.

Note.

Some letters in lines 4 and 8 of this inscription have disappeared. It seems to record the death of some warrior in defence of his village and the grant of a plot of wet land with the sowing capacity of 5 koḷagas in his memory by the Noḷamba King Dilipayya. The word Paṭṭanaḍēvar in line 3 seems to be a mistake for Paṇḍitadevar of the previous inscription which seems to be a title of Tribhuvanakartar, of inscription number 96.

Note.

This sannad begins with invocatory stanzas which may be translated as follows —

“ I praise the holy Mother Châmunḍi, born of the effulgence issuing from the faces of Śiva, Viṣṇu, Brahma and other gods, possessed of eight arms terrible in fighting, hurler of the great śūla (spear) on the demon who had the form of a buffalo and ever engaged in removing the fear of the three worlds. May the Supreme Being, the source of the power of Siddhas, the origin of all the worlds, a faultless standard for the universe, an object of love for the inspired words (Vêdas), full of kindness for all,—bring us un-mixed happiness. May the tusk of Hari who assumed the form of a Boar for sport, resting on which (tusk) the earth, having the Himalayas as its finial resembles an umbrella protect you. I salute thee, O Boar, who raised up the earth in sport and getting between whose hoofs the mountain Mēru appears like a minute atom. May the great God who took the body of a Boar in sport protect the three worlds—the Boar in whose single sprout-like tusk the tortoise (which supports the earth) appears like a lotus stem, the serpent (on whose head the earth is poised) appears like lotus leaves, the Mēru mountain (which stands firmly on earth as an upper support) appears like a lotus bud, the earth appears like a flower and the sky appears like a bee.

The inscription next records that on Friday, 10th lunar day of the bright half of Āshāḍha in the year Vyaya, 1748 of Śālivāhana era, 14th July 1826, Dêvājamanni, queen of Châmarāja Oḍeyar, son of Immaḍi Kṛishṇarāja Oḍeyar and grandson of Kṛishṇarāja Oḍeyar made a gift of Tulādâna (weighing oneself against gold and silver in a balance and giving away the gold and silver to Brahmans) on Dakṣiṇâyana day and in connection with that gift caused houses to be built near the village Baṇḍihole near Hêmagiri hill, on the bank of the Hêmâvati river in Narasîpur Taluk and giving the name Dêvâmbâ Agrahâra to the houses bestowed them to Brahmans, with stores of food provision.

She is further recorded to have given away 13 villages Baṇḍihole, Teraṇēnahalli, Maḍavanakôḍi, Yâchamānahalli, Yâchēnahalli, Teḍagarahalli, Mellahalli, Kuraṇēnahalli, Ālambâḍi, Basavanahalli, Mâmballi, Dadadahalli, Manchavaḷalu, free of taxes to the Brahmans dividing them into 60 vrittis (of which one vritti was bestowed for the service of the deity of the village). A sannad was also granted in the name of the king to each of the donees showing their title to the vrittis. One of the vrittis was granted to a Brahman, named Appaiya, son of Kuppaiya, and grandson of Anantaiya, of Haritasa-gôtra, Āśvalâyanasûtra and Rikṣâkhâ. The record ends with the usual imprecatory stanzas.

Note.

This record is very similar to the preceding number. It is also a sannad granted by Dēvājammanṇi, wife of Chāmarāja Oḍeyar IX, king of Mysore, recording the gift of the same 60 vṛittis of land and houses near the village Baṇḍihoḷe to Brahmans. The date is the same as that of the previous grant (14th July A. D. 1826). This record registers the gift of one vṛitti of land, with all rights of possession and free of taxes (specified) to Venkaṭarāmaiya, son of Rāmadāsaia, and grandson of Pradhāna Venkappaiya, of Mauna Bhārgava-gotra, Āśvalāyana-sūtra aned Rik-śākhā. The usual imprecatory verses conclude the grant.

The donee's grandfather is stated to be Pradhāna Venkappaiya in the grant. It is difficult to determine whether he is identical with Pradhāna Venkaṭabhūpati, author of several works in Sanskrit including Alankāra Maṇidarpaṇa.

It is further stated that these villages were obtained by the favour of the Vijayanagar King then reigning at the instance of Rāmabhaṭṭa. ## Translation.

Be it well. Victorious is the adorable Padmanābha resembling the cloudless sky.

A sun illuminating the clear firmament of the Ganga family, famous for valour and strength exhibited in rending asunder a pillar of stone with a single stroke of his sword, adorned, as with ornaments, with wounds received while cutting down the hosts of his fierce enemies, born of Kāṇvāyana-sagōtra, (was) the illustrious Konguivarma-dharma-mahādhirāja.

(Lines 4—6)

His son, inheriting the qualities of his father, possessed of an admirable character due to his learning and modesty, having obtained the honours of the kingdom only for the good government of his subjects, a touch-stone for testing gold the learned and the poets, skilled in the exposition and practice of polity, author of a treatise on Datta-kaśūtra was the illustrious Mādhavamahādhirāja.

(Lines 6—9)

His son, inheriting the qualities of his father and grandfather, possessed of a fame tasted by the waters of the four oceans and acquired in his fights against rows of elephants, was the illustrious Harivarṃma-mahādhiraḥa. His son, devoted to the worship of the Brahmans, Gurus, and Gods, meditating on the feet of Nārāyaṇa was the illustrious Viṣṇugōpa-mahādhiraḥa,

(Lines 9—11)

His son, with his head purified by the pollen from the lotuses, the feet of Tryambaka, having by his personal strength and valour purchased his kingdom, ever ready to extricate the ox of merit from the thick mire of Kaliyuga in which it had sunk was the illustrious Mādhava-mahādhiraḥa.

(Lines 11—15)

His son, with his mind purified by his excellent learning and modesty, possessed of valour unopposed was the illustrious Avinīta.

His son, endowed with the three constituents of regal power, having caused bewilderment to the fire of Yama by the excess of food in the shape of victims of hereos immolated at the sacrifice of battles at Andari, Ālattūr, Poruḷare, Peḷṇagara and other places ; author of a commentary on the fifteenth canto of the Kirātārjuniya, was the king named Durvinita.

(Lines 15—19)

His son, with his lotus feet rendered yellow with the fragrant pollen of the garlands worn on the heads of hostile kings trampled down in fierce battles was Mushkara, by name.

His son, with his mind rendered pure by his learning of the fourteen branches of knowledge ; expert among persons well-versed in the theoretical exposition and practical application of the entire science of polity, a rising sun in dispelling the thick darkness, the hostile kings, was the well-known Śrīvikrama.

(Lines 19—27)

His son, possessed of the scars of wounds made by the tusks of elephants in countless battles, with his broad breast marked with the signs of victory shining from out of the wounds ; well-versed in the contents of all the sastras ; devoted to the three pursuits of life ; endowed with spotless character, with power growing day after day ; was Bhūvikrama by name. Also was he known as Śrīvallabha, who with the splendour of victories in a hundred battles conquered the Pallava King in the battle of Viḷanda, fierce with the tramlings of hundreds of elephants intoxicated with the blood gushing out from the broad breasts of hostile kings pierced with a number of weapons.

His younger brother, with his lotus feet brilliant with the rays coming out from the sun-like gems inlaid in the diadems of kings prostrating before him, chosen of her own accord as her spouse by the Goddess of wealth, was Navakāma, by name śiṣṭapriya (beloved of the good) and with his fame sung by hosts of enemies.

(Lines 27—34)

The grandson of that Navakāma Konguṇi-mahādhiraḥa, known also as Sivamāra ; with his lotus feet shining with the band of rain-bows formed of the rays issuing out of various gems inlaid in the diadems of all the feudal chiefs brought under his control ; devoutly contemplating on the feet of Nārāyaṇa ; raging with fury in front of war horrid with the assault of horses, heroes, men and elephants ; terrific in anger ; no less a captivator of the glances of young women and the most skilled in the joyful art of love than a subduer of the world ; laden with spoils of victory gained over the hostile kings ; a lion among kings ; moreover, a sun greatly illumining the clear firmament of the Ganga race, a terror to hostile kings, ever fortunate, a protector of the ways of good men, having obtained a good kingdom, a king of superior qualities among kings, ever victorious, is the king Śrīpurusha, a crest-jewel among princes.

(Lines 35—38)

To women, a Kāma (Cupid) ; in the use of the bow, the son of Daśaratha ; in valour, the son of Jamadagni; in great wealth, Indra; in great glory the sun; in sovereign power Kubêra ; of a mighty and splendid energy, the benefactor of all living beings ; whom the poets daily praise as the protector of the people specially created by Brahma; whose palace echoed with the sounds of holy ceremonies which accompanied his daily rich gifts, was Śrīpurusha the first so named, (also known as) Prithvikonguṇi-mahādhirāja.

(Lines 39—54)

Diṇḍigarar, a descendant of Bāṇa race and ruler over the Province of Kalbappunāḍu Thousand seven-hundred, took permission from Śrīpurusha-mahārāja and made the brahmadēya gift, during Dakṣiṇāyana-vishuvatkāla, of the village Kovaḷevetṭu, dividing it into three parts and giving away one part each to Janārdana of Kāśyapagōtra, Kēśavabhaṭṭa of Kauśika-gōtra, Nāgaśarma of Kāśyapagotra. While Diṇḍigenāḍiyar and Koṇḍaḍi were holding the office of pergaḍe, Belliyars (silversmiths?) of Nagarūr, Vaṇṇākar (washermen) of Maravūr, Mādaḍi of Kallaḍupu, Jiyachāya of Modūr are human witnesses (to this).....

The boundaries are.—The eastern boundary runs from the Pādari tree in the inner tank and from therein joins the tank and running from the big water-course terminates at the big tree to the west. The southern boundary includes Tale-moraḍe (a raised ground), Bedikere (tank) and Modalemaḍuvu (a pool). The western boundary consists of Velgoḷa (white pond) channel, bund and the rivulet. The northern boundary runs through Kaḍvigere, Manjaḷtone, Bāḷoḷve, Soralmoraḍi, and passing through Bānnigārlakuppe and Bāḷoḷve ends at the Pādari tree. These are the boundaries.

Whosoever confiscates land given away by himself or by others is born as a worm in ordure for sixty thousand years. Earth is enjoyed by numerous kings like (Sagara) The fruit (of giving away a land) goes to whosoever rules the land at the time (of the gift). The property of a Brahman is a terrible poison. The (ordinary) poison is no poison really. Poison kills only one but the property of a Brahman (confiscated) kills one's sons and grandsons also.

Note.

This is a copper plate inscription of the Ganga King Śrīpurusha. It begins with the usual account of the early Ganga Kings down to Śrīpurusha. It next records the gift of a village named Kovaḷevetṭu to three Brahmans by Diṇḍigarar, a Bāṇa King ruling over Kalbappunāḍu district and a subordinate of Śrīpurusha, after obtaining the permission to grant the village from the Ganga king. No date is given. It is merely stated that the gift was made at the time of Dakṣiṇāyana Vishuvatkāla, i.e., the autumnal equinox when the sun is moving from north to south. The names of the witnesses and the boundaries next follow. The usual imprecatory stanzas conclude the grant.

As regards the donor of the grant, Diṇḍigarar, the Bāṇa King of Kalbappunāḍu, it is interesting to note that a king named Diṇḍigarāja is mentioned in an inscription at Śravaṇa Belgoḷa (Śravaṇa Belgoḷa inscriptions, Revised Volume No. II Introduction P. 68) to have been present at the time of a Jaina guru's death on Kaṭavapra hill which is called Kalbappu in Kannada language. No date is given in the Śravaṇa Belgoḷa inscription referred to, but from the paleography its date has been provisionally ascribed to the middle of 7th Century A. D. But the present grant refers to the time of Ganga King Śrīpurusha whose reign is believed to have begun in A. D. 726 (see P. 38 of Mysore and Coorg from Inscriptions by Rice). Hence Diṇḍigarar of the present inscription may not be identical with Diṇḍikarāja of Śravaṇa Belgoḷa record.

In the Udayêndiram Plates of Prithvîpati II (South Indian Inscriptions II, 382). Iriga, one of the sons of a king Diṇḍi (Diṇḍikôjêriga) is said to have been saved by Prithvîpati I from the Râshtrakûṭa king Amôghavarsha I. As Amôghavarsha I's rule began in the early part of the 9th century, the period of King Diṇḍi agrees with the date of the present inscription and it may be surmised that Diṇḍigarar, the Bâṇa King is identical with King Diṇḍi or Diṇḍikôjêriga of Udayêndiram Plates.

Note.

This records the gift of the village Kadalagere in Hogara-nâḍu by mahâpradhâna Timmaṇṇadanaṇyaka for the service of God Nârâyana in Tirunârâyana-pura on the fullmoon day of Phâlguna in the year Sarvajitu, Śaka 1390, when Virûpâksha Mahârâja was ruling over the earth. The inscription ends with the usual imprecation. Śaka 1390 corresponds to 1468. The composition of the inscription is not in order. After the first verse, mention is made of Vijayâbhyudaya Śâlivâhana. Then without completing the date, the king's name and titles are mentioned and then the date is completed. The date is not verifiable. The genuineness of the grant is not unquestionable. Tirunârâyana-pura is a name for the town Mêlukôte.

I (b)

May you be protected by him whose lotus-like navel Brahma made his own abode.
May you be protected also by him whose head is adorned by the crescent moon.

There was a king, around whose neck the goddess of wealth and sovereignty shining in his breast stretched her arms together with the rays of the Kaustubha gem adorning his breast ; who was possessed of honesty and long arms ; who, though a vanquisher of the circle of enemies, was not of Krishna (black) character, Krishnarâja was he.

An ocean in which all the great kings took refuge from fear of losing their territories just as the great mountains took refuge from fear of having their wings cut off by Indra's discus, difficult to overcome, (or to cross), shining with great and brilliant jewels, the asylum of budhas (the learned and the gods), was the Châlukya family from which he like the Mandara mountain quickly and with ease drew forth Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth :—He was Vallabha.

He had a son, Dhôra, who filled all the points of the compass with his glory, like the sun, yet delighted all Bhûdharas (kings and mountains) with the coolness of his rays ; gifted with courage, witherer of the bloom of the lotus faces of the wives of his enemies, whose fame was worn, as if it were a garland, by the ladies, the points of the compass ; united to Lakshmi who, though married before to his elder brother (jyêshṭha) was yet free from blame, who, though possessed of a maṇḍala (country and an orb of rays) was not Dôshâkara (an abode of faults and the moon).

Surpassing Karna in giving gifts ; the regent elephants, ashamed to see the excellence of his gifts surpassing those of others, retired as it were to the points of the horizon.

II (a)

Seeing how he had for a long time bound a Ganga King (Śivamâra) who was never conquered by others, and who, possessed of great might, seized the whole world and had thus a reputation for valour, unequalled by others, Kali fearing that he too would be seized, fled afar.

Hemming him in between his own force on one side and the sea on the other, he made the Pallava King bow down to him and obtained from him huge elephants, greater than the warriors who had drawn their swords and fiercer than the monsters of the deep, made the water of their pride ooze over, yet himself never displayed any pride.

When Vatsarâja as in sport had seized for his own the Gauḍa kingdom, entering into the latter's territory with his invincible army, he (the Râshṭrakûṭa King) swiftly drove him into the impassable desert and took from him only the pair of the moonlike white umbrellas of the Gauḍa King and thereby caused his own fame to spread in a moment to the farthest points of the compass. He drove afar, by his pure conduct, Kali though firmly established and brought back to the earth again the glory of the Kṛitayuga ; it is still a wonder that this Nirupama became Kali-Vallabha.

II (b)

From the righteous Nirupama was born, like the moon from the ocean, of pure mind, with his lofty head placed at the feet of Paramêśvara, like the sun daily rising from the high eastern mountain, beloved of the good, Gôvindarâja.

While, he, the abode of all good qualities was king, the Râshtrakûṭa dynasty became invincible by others like the Yâdava race on the birth of Kṛishṇa ; his equals became his inferiors, his dependants and enemies were equally made muktâhâra-vibhûshitas, (decked with pearl garlands,—deprived of their food) and thus equally made courtiers. When seeing his more than human form, and his ability to deliver the three worlds from disorder even as Kṛishṇa, his father wished to give him the sovereignty of the world, he truly said to his father.—Let alone the inviolable necklet you have given me ; I have worn your command far better.

When that father together with his fame had departed to be an ornament to Svarga, he, though only one, by his energy and valour, deprived of their glory the twelve famous kings who like a fire at the end of the world came upon him united as if to destroy the whole world.

III (a)

By him, formost among the merciful, the Ganga king was released from the burden of his cruel chains and sent to his own submissive country ; but, when he in his pride showed a return of hostility, before the brow was wrinkled in a frown, he was again subdued and swiftly bound.

Seeing that having mounted the arrows on his bow, having contributed to the prosperity of bandhujîvas (the bandhujîva flowers, and lives of relations) and having caused the growth of Padma (lotuses and wealth), he (Gôvindarâja) arrived like the autumn season, the Gârjara king like the rainy season disappeared somewhere through fear and even so beheld that season in his dreams.

Discerning from a distance that Lakshmi (goddess of fortune) had taken refuge at his feet alone, the politic Mâlava Chief folded his hands to him in obeisance, being a learned man too feeble in power to withstand the powerful, the home of policy, who discriminated between his own and others.

Hearing from his spies that having established his camp on the Vindhya mountains, he (Gôvinda) had arrived at his country and thinking that the news was quite true, the king Mârasarva won his (Gôvinda's) good graces never before gained by others, by casting himself at his feet with his wealth.

III (b)

Having spent the rainy season overcast with thick clouds at Śrîbhavana, from there he came with his army to the bank of the Tungabhadra. Remaining there he received in full the tribute through his ministers or people and similar tribute from the Pallava King,—he whose enemies submitted to him at his threat.

At even half a word by the mouth of a letter-bearer, the Vengi king constantly performed of his own accord his duty like a servant. The outer enclosure made for him by the Vengi king as lofty as the sky bore the splendour with its constellations like a garland of pearls.

Through fear hostile kings took refuge with their heads placed at his two feet and with their hands folded in obeisance, as they did before his ancestors. Their heads did not shine as much with the valuable ornaments as with his words “ Do not fear ” famous for their truthfulness.

IV (a)

By him, reflecting that this life was as unstable and transient as wind or lightning and that gift of land was of supreme merit, this gift for Brahmans has been made. He, meditating on the feet of the Paramabhaṭṭâraka mahârâjâdhirâja paramêśvara-śrîmat Dhârâvarshadêva, the Paramabhaṭṭâraka-mahârâjâdhirâja-paramêśvara-prithivî-vallabha-Prabhûtavarsha-śrîmat Gôvindarâjadêva, the son of Dhârâvarsha Śrîvaljabha-mahârâjâdhirâja, possessed of purity, excellent conduct, and other good qualities, receiving the obeisance of the whole world, bent on doing good to others, merciful, ever delighted with bowing at the lotus feet of Paramêśvara, the Raṇāvalôka-Śrī Kambhara-ja (granted) the village Badanaguppe by name in the country called Punnâda Ede-nâdu, in his victorious camp made at Talavananagara, there having elapsed thirty years over and above (700) Śaka years, on Monday the fifteenth lunar day of the light half of Kârtika with the constellation Rôhini. Eḷavâchârya was the disciple of Kumâranandibhaṭṭâraka of Koṇḍa-Kundânvaya and of Sirmalage Gurugaṇa ; his disciple was Vardhamânaguru, kind to all, well-versed in the Siddhânta received direct from teacher to teacher, peaceful, almost omniscient ; possessed of modesty and good conduct—To him Śrī Kambhadêva gave the above village at the request of his son Sankaragaṇṇa for the service of the Vijaya Vasati (Basti or Basadi) constructed in the town of Talavana. Its boundary in Kannaḍa language is as follows :—

North.—Ponarpuli.

North-East.—Posattigallu.

East.—The big gate of Kadambagere.

South-East.—Polguḷvali-tennoḷve.

South.—Beḷakâla-tennoḷve.

South-West.—Muduvannikoḷu.

West.—The river called Kaḷliveṭṭina Mûḷaṇa pore and Beṭṭuḷagu.

North-West.—Oḷve-âlu north to Badanidi.

(In Sanskrit.)

The witnesses to this gift are the people of the 96 thousand country.

Whoever takes away this out of greed, ignorance, or carelessness, will be guilty of the five great sins. Whoever maintains this will have merit. There are also the verses sung by Manu :—

Whoever takes away the land gifted by himself or by others will be born in ordure for sixty thousand years.

It is easier to give one's own. Hard it is to maintain the gift of others ; the latter is far better than the former.

By many kings like Sagara and others was the earth enjoyed. Whoever enjoyed it had the fruit of it at the time. The property of gods is the real poison, but the so-called poison is no poison. The latter kills a single man, but the former the whole family consisting of the son, the grandson and others.

Written by Viśvakarmâchârya.

Note.

This grant consists of five plates, of which plates Ib to the end of IIb contain the same version of the inscription as that of Nelamangala No. 61 of Bangalore District. From IVa to Va the inscription contains the description of donor, the donee, the date, the boundary of the village gifted, and the imprecation. In furnishing the date, the number denoting the Śaka years is omitted. The orthography of this inscription is wrong as that of No. 61 referred to. These two help each other in arriving at a correct version of the inscription. The characters are similar to those of No. 61.

35. sâsirvva-Brâmhâṇaruma sâsira-kavileya dânam-geyda phala

Translation.

Salutation to Śambhu, on whose head the crescent plays the part of a fly-flap and who is the supporting pillar of the city of the three Worlds.

Be it well. While the victorious reign of the illustrious Tribhuvanamalladêva has had an ever-increasing prosperous career to last as long as the moon, the stars, and the sky:—The worshipper of his lotus feet, possessed of an excellent name and titles, the illustrious mahâpradhâna and daṇḍanâyaka was Anantapâlarasa. Under his orders, possessed of a good name and titles, the illustrious Gôvindarasa, Daṇḍanâyaka of vaḍḍarāvula was ruling with ease and with delight derived from conversation and story-telling, over Banavāsi, 12000 :—born of Kēsīrājavibhu and Nilabbe, and possessed of shining reputation and good qualities was Dāsīrāja, a sun of the sky, Parāśara-gôtra. Gôvinda alone is a meritorious man when it is said that Dāsīrāja is his father and Sômāmbike his mother. Worshipper of Gôvinda's lotus feet, having for his father Mādhavabhaṭṭa of the village Vêha 80000,—a village gifted to Rāma in Anturvêdi—and mother Jānaki of Vatsa-gôtra, aunt (?) Gaurabbe, brother Soddaḷa, cousin of Daṇḍanāyaka Gôvindarasa, Prithvidhara Trivājibhatta, was the Chief of Kundûr, known as Vaḍḍagrāma (Chief village).

When he said to the 32,000 that he would give land for constructing a tank, and also granted some land to the north of the town, on Thursday the 2nd lunar day of the light half of Chaitra in the year Sarvajitu, the 32nd year of Chālukya Vikrama (A.D. 1108) and when the tank was constructed and a temple was built, he granted fifty Kambas of land under the tank for food-offering to the god and for the worship and also as measured by Mahadêva, thirteen Kambas of land. Thus having worshipped the feet of the 32,000 he granted 63 Kambas to the Paṇḍita of Rudrêśvara with the pouring of water. The 32,000 will maintain the gift.

Then follows the usual imprecation. (The date corresponds to Tuesday the 17th of March A.D. 1108 coinciding with Sarvajitu. Apparently the week-day is wrong).

Translation.

Be it well. While the refuge of the whole world, prithivî-vallabha, mahârâjâdhirâja, râjaparamêśvara, paramabhaṭṭâraka, the ornament of the Satyâśraya family, the gem of the Châlukyas, the illustrious Tribhuvanamalla, was ruling over the kingdom with ease and happiness in his capital at Mannekere, in continuation of the ever prosperous hereditary reign, to last as long as the moon, the sun and the stars:—His dependant at his lotus feet: possessed of all good qualities as an ornament, truthfulness, purity, admirable conduct, modesty, a man of his word, a pure soul of his family, a man of pure conduct, just though harsh, a Yudhisṭhira in virtue, an elephant in rut to enemies, destroyer of the hostile; a necklace to the learned, the gay and the woman folk, a Rêvanta in hunting, lord of death to enemies, protector of Kollâpur, having good qualities as an ornament, sweet as musk, obtainer of a boon from Mahâlakshmi, possessed of the best name and other titles,—the illustrious Prabhu Sonnaneyanâyaka, Lakhumâdêvi, his beloved wife, Chôlabbe, his daughter, and Bêdaya, his son—while all these ruled over Kolhapûr, on Friday the full moon day of the month, Mâgha in the year Vyaya in the 31st year of the Châlukya Vira Vikrama èra, for the acquisition of merit on this auspicious day of lunar eclipse, granted a village close by Kalige twelve for the service of Mahâlakshmi; also granted in the land of Gangûr Kâla Kenjabbe, to the east of the place where water is distributed to travellers, in Goravagâla, a plot of land measuring four mattars and also a house-building site together with a store-house to Bairanâyaka after washing his feet, with the pouring of water and free of all taxes, all the Sthânikas being witnesses so as to guard the gift against obstructors. The maintenance of this gift will be conducive to merit. Whoever takes away the gift of land made by himself or by others will be born in ordure for sixty thousand years.

Bâchanaya wrote the inscription and Chandamaya engraved it on the stone.

Note.

This inscription belongs to the reign of the Châlukya king Tribhuvanamalla Vikramâditya (IV). The particulars given in the date of the grant correspond with those of Friday 11th January, A.D. 1107, a day of lunar eclipse according to Svami-kannu Pillay's Tables.

The first of these is the fact that the population of the country is increasing rapidly. This is due to a number of causes, including a high birth rate, a low death rate, and a large influx of immigrants. The second is the fact that the country is becoming more industrialized. This is due to the growth of manufacturing and mining industries. The third is the fact that the country is becoming more urbanized.
 This is due to the growth of cities and towns. The fourth is the fact that the country is becoming more educated.
 This is due to the growth of schools and universities. The fifth is the fact that the country is becoming more developed. This is due to the growth of the economy and the improvement of the standard of living.
